Every Pair
Of...

is made to our order by Hathaway, Soule & Harrington, of Boston. They are the handsomest and most comfortable shoes for men in this city. Every pair bears this Trade Mark. No other dealer has them.

Come in and see how well they fit you.
Come in and see how strong they are.
Come in and see how little they cost!

Any Canadian with the slightest knowledge of SHOE LEATHER and STYLE can see how foolish it is to buy a CANADIAN STAMPED $5.00 SHOE, when you can get

GENUINE AMERICAN
SHOES FOR $4.00

not imitated after a last season's style. Canadian Shoes made on American lasts are behind the times, because no Canadian firm can purchase American lasts until they have been in use one season in the United States. American Shoes combine all the new features of Shoddom which embrace all the newest shapes and different kinds of leather. As to quality, there is no one who cannot see how superior they are in this respect.

HE WAS DEPORTED

Young Canadian Took His Wife and Family to the States

But the Authorities There Promptly
Ran Him Out of the Country
Again.

Ottawa, May 11.—In the Commons yesterday Mr. Taylor, the Opposition whip, drew the attention of the Government to the deportation of a Canadian from the United States under the United States alien labor law. He read a letter from a young man in Ogdensburg, N.Y., setting forth that a Canadian named John White, employed in a store in Ogdensburg, after he had brought his wife and family over, had been deported back to Canada under the provisions of the law. The writer thought it was "an opportune time to make those howling Grits declare themselves on this question." Mr. Taylor said that the Government had placed on the statute books what was called an "alien" labor law, for it was nothing else and never intended to be anything else. It was arranged that while the international negotiations were in progress there should be mutual suspension of the alien law on both sides, but here were the Americans enforcing theirs, while the Canadian Government allowed Americans to come to Canada every day to obtain employment. Had the bill which he himself introduced been allowed to pass it would be of some use.

The Prime Minister replied that this was the second instance which had been brought to his notice of a Canadian subject being deported under color of enforcing the alien labor law. The other case had been brought up by the leader of the Opposition. The latter case was certainly one which called for diplomatic action and protest to the Government at Washington, who were going altogether beyond the scope of the United States alien labor law, to the injury of Canadian subjects.

"A SINGLE FACT"

Is worth a shipload of argument." What shall be said, then, of thousands of facts? Every cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla is a fact, presenting the strongest possible evidence of the merit of this medicine. Thousands and thousands of such facts prove that Hood's Sarsaparilla will cure all diseases caused or promoted by impure blood. It is the best medicine money can buy.

Indigestion, nausea, are cured by Hood's Pills.

BLUFF A FAILURE.

How a Woman Nearly Succeeded
In Getting $35.

Sharp Lawyer Outwitted Her to His Client's Great Relief.

A prominent and wealthy farmer, resident of one of the neighboring townships, came into this city on sport intent some few weeks ago. He promptly fell in with two of Chatham's fair dames with corrupted reputations and they proceeded to divorce him from his long green bank notes and incidentally at the same time to make him forget in the oblivion of pleasure certain portions of the 20th chapter of Exodus. This is quite surprising since he is a leading church member. Be that as it may, however, this sportive benedict, in company with the two divinities went out to a house on Park avenue where an evening of pleasure was spent. All went merry as a marriage bell. In the morning the rural visitor wended his way homeward and thought no more of his evening's sport. A few days afterwards he was horrified to receive a letter from the woman of the house he had visited stating that one of his emerald dimes had swiped a diamond worth $35 and unless the gem was returned or the loss made good there would be trouble. The venerable sport was not so much surprised at his companions being accused of theft as he was troubled lest his wife should discover his peridy and he should be disgraced in the community. He hitched up his fast road horse and drove to this city to consult a lawyer. The lawyer said it was clearly a case of blackmail and he could easily settle it.

"Take the $35 and give it to the woman," cried the terrified victim. "Give her anything she asks but avoid the exposure." The lawyer took the money and went out to interview the hostess above referred to. He didn't start off by tendering the money. He talked police court, how necessary it would be to call in the police, and appeared anxious for anything but a settlement. What he harped on was the necessity for a thorough investigation, with the object of bringing to justice the guilty ones.

The lawyer diagnosed the case correctly. The woman got frightened. She didn't want any exposure. She admitted there had been no theft and no diamond to steal. She simply wanted to play the old chap she said for a "sucker" to the tune of $35. She thought that was about his limit or she would have gone higher.

After a long interview the lawyer finally consented to let the matter rest if she would sign a document setting forth the facts. This she was only too willing to do if nothing more would be said about it.

Now, here is the extraordinary part of the whole story which is a true one. The lawyer never charged the woman a cent for drawing up that legal document. He came away without even getting a chattel mortgage on her furniture. What is more, he went back to his client and returned him $25 out of the $35 keeping only $10 for his services. The idea of both the woman and the countryman escaping from a lawyer at the sacrifice of $10 may raise some question about the genuineness of this story but it happens to be true for all that.

Everybody
Wears the Cap

And everybody can this season. We don't know how fixed the cap-habit was here in Chatham last year,—we are a bit new to each other yet, but you will understand that all that is new will find its way to this new store of yours in proper season and at the proper price.

New caps are here,—new caps for the men, the women, the youth, the girl and the boy,—all will wear the cap—and like it.

For Mr. and Mrs. Boy and Girl

Caps for men; caps for boys; caps for women; caps for girls; caps for the little ones, the miss and the maid. Serge, glazed and cloth peaks; tweeds, tams, leathers, velvets and ducks,.....10c to 75c.

No reason why everybody shouldn't own one,—for the little-folk they come as low as ten cents and for as much as half a dollar; for the older ones as little as a quarter. But, mind you, that's our price and the reason of it is because we bought enough for three stores,—about six times last year's purchase.
