Pleasures of Outdoor Life.

Sergeant McLellan of Port Arthur had a queer character at the police station recently. He was a regular Rip Van Winkle of the up-to-date type. The man's name is Robert Henderson, and he hails from a town near Edinburgh, Scotland. He states that he is now 74 years of age.

When he was seen by a scribe in the police station he certainly presented an odd appearance. His feet were wound up in canvas bags, to take the place of boots. For clothing he had two pairs of overalls and an old coat. His hat was a home-made affair, being an old felt hat with large ear flaps sewed on.

"I left North Bay on New Year's Day, and since that time I have been on the tramp between that place and Port Arthur. I scorn a ride on the cars, and I have walked every step of the way. At night I usually make my quarters in shacks along the line."

"What do you do for food?" asked the scribe. "I live principally on the stuff that is thrown out of the dining cars, and sometimes I beg a meal by the way. That food agrees with me better than anything else. The girl is the mother of the woman just as "the boy is the father of the man." The period when the womanly functions begin is one to be carefully watched and considered. Irregularity or derangements at this time may be promptly met and cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. But neglected at this critical period may entail years of future suffering. "Favorite Prescription" acts directly upon the womanly organs, giving them perfect vigor and abundant vitality. It results for the constitutions of health and happiness, and delivers womanhood from the cruel bondage of "female weakness."

Well recognized authorities of all schools of medicine have nothing but praise for the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Say about them, Not a patent medicine, but a "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce—who makes the diseases of women his specialty. It has forty years of cures back of it.

It was built in 1859 by John Rowan, son of the Chief Factor Rowan, who built the first Big House within the walls of Fort Edmonton in the early part of last century, as Chief Factor Hardisty built the second Big House outside the fort. Mr. Harrison Young, from whom this information was obtained, states that this John Rowan was for many years employed with the Hudson Bay Co. in Edmonton district. He was for several years in charge of Fort Pitt. Mr. Rowan later went down to the Red River district, and was noted as being one of the old brigade of Hudson Bay factors, who was largely instrumental in the carrying through of the negotiations which finally resulted in the amalgamation of the Hudson Bay Co. and Northwest Trading Co. Residence of Speaker McKay.

Deer Lodge was rendered notable as being the residence of the late Hon. James McKay, who was Speaker of the Legislature under the Gerrard-Davis Administration, and afterwards a member of the Davis Government, who resided there from 1860 to 1878. Mr. McKay was the husband of Margaret Rowan. Mr. McKay made the place famous as a stock farm, and in many of the records of the time, and up to 1879, his thoroughbreds are mentioned.

The lodge was constructed of hewn logs, chinked with mortar, the outside being covered with sheeting. It was a storey and a half in height, surrounded on three sides by a piazza and upper balcony, and decorated at each peak of the road for a second peak of the peak o Residence of Speaker McKay

His furs include seven coyote skins, six cross-fox, eighteen red fox, two otter, seventeen lynx, ten mink, seven marten, three weasel, one large black bearskin, and five moose skins.

Some idea of the value of Dezzerlais' cargo may be had from the fact that marten skins are worth from $10 to $25 each; mink and lynx, $8 to $9; otter, $15 to $25; cross-fox and coyotes, $3 to $5; red fox, $5 to $7.
