

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JAN. 22, 1912.

Next week the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association is to hold its annual meeting in our town. The occasion is an important one, and we feel sure our people generally will regard it. The N. S. F. G. A. was formed forty-six years ago, and has been very largely instrumental in making fruit growing the important industry it has become in the Annapolis Valley. With our million and a half barrels this season we are beginning to realize what a large factor in the prosperity of the province fruit-growing is destined to be. Those who are in a position to know predict that within a very few years the crop will be doubled, and eventually this whole valley will become as one big orchard. We believe our people do not in anything like the fullest degree realize the importance of the fruit growing industry, and therefore trust the attendance of the rank and file of fruit-growers at the meeting next week may be large and representative, so that the experiences of many who have made the business a success may be put to good use.

Never has Nova Scotia entered upon a more promising period than the year 1912. Awakening from her lethargy she is coming to realize that energy and a spirit of wide-awake ness is all that is needed to secure her her share of the wonderful development that is in prospect for all Canada.

Statistics are wonderfully gratifying in every realm, whether of agriculture, commerce, finance or trade. In a review by the Secretary of Industries and Immigration, published in the New Year's number of the Halifax Chronicle, he quotes the financial editor of a great metropolitan journal who recently visited Nova Scotia in order to ascertain its industrial possibilities. He states: "Nova Scotia contains more compressed opportunities for investment than any other portion of Canada. I have been astonished at the variety and profusion of natural resources within so small a country. Millions are going in other directions that would yield a quicker and larger return if invested in that Province." And this is the message we have for all beyond our borders as well as at home.

The Canadian Magazine starts the new year with a most attractive January number. The frontispiece is a reproduction in tint from a painting by J. E. H. Macdonald, a clever young artist, of Toronto, and the first article is a delightful bit of writing by W. Leacy Amy, descriptive of "Quidi Vidi," a surprising fishing town of Newfoundland. "Burns' Message to Canada," by Dr. J. D. Logan, is a timely application of this celebrated Scottish bard's social ideas to trans-Atlantic conditions. Arthur Hawkes gives an interesting account of the explorations of Herne and his Indian associate Matanabee. A fine historical sketch of the first administration of Ontario is contributed by Professor W. S. Wallace, with portraits of the members of Ontario's first government. There are other very readable articles: "English Play actresses," by Ida Burwash; "Plays of the Season," by John E. Webber; "The Vogue of the Nature Story," by C. Lintner Sibley; and a sketch of Miss Janet Carnochan, by Francis Drake Smith, with short stories by Brian Bellas, Sylvester Perry, and Elizabeth Richardson.

Strong Words of Praise.

Mrs. (Rev.) W. H. Clarke, Shelburne, Ont., writes:—"I wish to give the unsolicited testimony to the great value of Baby's Own Tablets. Our little girl, born last February, was at first very constipated. When other remedies failed we tried the Tablets and in a week she was completely cured. By the use of the Tablets she has been kept well and happy ever since." It is strong praise like this that has made Baby's Own Tablets so popular. Thousands of other mothers have said: "Once we had given the Tablets a trial we had nothing but praise for them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Lib.-Con. Association.

The annual meeting of the Kings County Liberal-Conservative Association was held on Monday afternoon of this week at the Court House, Kentville. There was a good attendance of members from various parts of the county. The financial statement was read and passed. Secretary Ryan presented the proposed constitution and by-law, which were, on motion, accepted by the meeting.

Following are the officers for the ensuing year as elected: Honorary President—B. Webster, Kentville. President—R. C. Parker, Berwick. Vice President—Dr. G. E. DeWitt, Wolfville. Secretary—J. G. Ryan, Kentville. Treasurer—T. F. Eakin, Kentville. Capt. C. O. Allen and Secretary Webster were appointed auditors. A. J. Foster, N. P., was present and being called upon made an excellent address, urging upon the members the need and continued effort to promote the party interest.

'HOME RULE.'

Preparations for resisting Home Rule, especially in Ulster, are going forward with great energy, and with a temper that will never submit to the measure now being framed by Mr. Redmond. Even if Ulster were alone by herself to fight Home Rule she would not prove unequal, but she will fight shoulder to shoulder with the Unionist party of Great Britain, whose policy on the question was laid down by their new leader, Mr. Bonar Law, in a recent speech to his constituents. He said there would be no shrinking on the part of his party in the House of Commons to defeat one of the most ignominious conspiracies which has ever been formed against the liberties of free born men. The Unionist party will fight against Home Rule as they have never fought against any other measure introduced by the present government, and in the face of this opposition and that of the loyalists in Ulster it is difficult to see how the measure can be passed in Parliament, or, if passed, how it can be imposed upon the north of Ireland.

Mr. Law said that many people were in favor of Home Rule because they were tired of the Irish question, and they thought that Home Rule would end it. It was the duty of his party to show them that the adoption of the measure would be the beginning, and not the end, of the Irish question. It would bring to England and Ireland not peace but a sword. It is because it will not settle the Irish question that it is being supported by men whose political existence depends on Ireland being kept in a state of turmoil. The policy with regard to Ireland, should be the same as with regard to England and Scotland. Mr. Redmond apparently desires to give Ireland more politics and less industry, whereas the Unionists' policy is to give Ireland more industries and less politics.

Speaking of the loyal minority in Ireland, Mr. Law said that it constituted one-fourth of the people of Ireland. This minority pays more than half the taxes, does more than half the trade of the country, and, from the point of view of character and everything that makes for strength, it represents at least the half of Ireland. To the majority in Ireland Home Rule would come as a doubtful blessing—to the loyal minority it would be an intolerable curse. It is true that Mr. Redmond is full of kind promises to the minority, but there are no guarantees that the promises would be carried out. The minority, however, of Ireland believe that their religious liberty would not be safe under Home Rule, and although Mr. Birrell had said that the Irish loyalists had no more religion than his billiard table, this merely revealed his profound ignorance of the people of Ulster.

Mr. Law spoke of the men of Ulster with eloquence. "They have sympathy with us in good times and bad, and in all our troubles. In their case there were no thoughts of fabrication when the news came that our soldiers were defeated and that our soldiers were lying dead in the ditches of the country. They sympathized in our sorrows, they shared in our triumphs. They have turned what was itself one of the most barren parts of Ireland into one of the most prosperous spots in the United Kingdom. They ask now that they should be given the same privileges and nothing more, that are enjoyed by every man and woman in Great Britain. They ask only that they should enjoy these, and should be able to hand down to their children the heritage which they have received, the privilege of British citizenship, and the protection of British law."

Rev. C. H. Haverstock.

In the death of Rev. C. H. Haverstock, which occurred on Friday morning, Jan. 5th, the community loses a member of singular worth and the church a worker of great force and fidelity. Something over a year ago Mr. Haverstock was obliged to give up his work at Nictaux, where he had been pastor for eight years. Never very robust his constitution could no longer stand the strain of his devoted labor in this field he loved so well. Tuberculosis developed rapidly. His people urged him to take a prolonged rest and seek aid in some western sanitarium but the verdict of medical science was that it was too late. His days of retirement were made bright by the utmost devotion and affection of his people but the relinquishment of his loved work bore heavily upon his spirits. The cross was heavy but he was greeted with strength to bear it. In December removal was made to Wolfville and a home established on Prospect street. He found satisfaction in change for it gave him opportunity to love near him his children who were attending the institutions, but his strength was too far ebb'd to rally, and gradually weakening he passed peacefully to rest on the morning of the 5th inst.

Saturday morning after a brief service at the home conducted by Rev. B. D. Webber and Dr. Manning the body was taken by train to Nictaux for interment. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Stevens, the present pastor of the church, assisted by many of the neighboring ministers, and from the pulpit where he had ministered to the men's dearest needs he was followed to his quiet rest by a great concourse of those who ministered with a genuine sorrow. To Mr. Haverstock and the one who followed him we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

The weather during the present week has been decidedly winter-like with the majority of these days being clear and sunny.

ONLY INDIGESTION EXPECTED TO DIE FROM CANCER.

Morrissy's No. 11 Tablets promptly relieved as usual.

"I suffered so intensely with indigestion for some time that I was sure I had cancer and could not live, and had actually made some plans for my funeral. I had been suffering about a year, and was a wreck in this time. I had tried a line of medicine, and was carrying out the best of me. My husband, who runs a store in this place, had a bottle of Morrissy's No. 11 Tablets for me, and I took it. I felt better in a few days, and was able to eat and sleep. My recovery came very fast, and now I am perfectly well—and have regained the life of my family. I had lost. I told my husband that I had done, and he could hardly believe it. I feel it my duty now that I am cured to give this testimonial and to highly recommend to all who are afflicted with indigestion, these wonderful No. 11 Tablets, which seem almost miraculous to me."

Mrs. Edm. Dubois. The above prescription is not a "Cure-All" or so-called patent medicine. Morrissy's No. 11 Tablets are a natural, safe, and reliable remedy for indigestion, and are sold by all druggists.

Among the thousands of Canadian women who have found new health and new strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mrs. W. C. Daerr, London, Ont., who says: "About two years ago I found myself so badly run down that it was almost impossible to perform my household duties. I fell off in flesh, was weak and very pale, had no appetite, felt constantly cold, and to further make my life miserable I was afflicted with those other ailments from which so many women suffer. I tried many kinds of medicine, but got no benefit, and began to feel that I was slipping into chronic invalidism. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and although I felt somewhat hopeless decided to do so. To my delight after taking the Pills a few weeks, I felt much better, and a further use of them brought me back to my old time health. I have since recommended the Pills to many others, and those who have used them have always been benefited."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

QUICK RELIEF FROM THAT PERSISTENT, HACKING COUGH

We mean the kind of cough that gives one a cold shiver just to hear—the dry, deep-seated, hack—hack—hack—that seems as if it were tearing the very vitals. That's the kind of cough that means business.

Fortunately though, that is also one of the kinds of cough for which Na-Drug Co. Syrup of Licorice, Licorice and Chlorodyne was first prescribed, and which it has been relieving with great promptness and regularity ever since. Na-Drug Co. Syrup of Licorice, Licorice and Chlorodyne is absolutely free from harmful drugs of any kind, and is safe even for children. It is pleasant to take, and acts quickly, relieving the irritation, loosening the phlegm, promoting expectoration, and so stopping the cough. Thousands declare it to be the best cough syrup they have ever tried.

Your Druggist will gladly recommend it, and will supply you with either 25c or 50c. bottle. The National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, 116
