

FREE OF ALL THREE DISEASES

"Fruit-a-lives" Brought Him Perfect Health

AVON, Ont., May 14th, 1913.
 "I am younger since I have been taking 'Fruit-a-lives'. I was troubled very badly with Piles, Constipation and Stomach Disorder, but I found 'Fruit-a-lives' was the answer for the whole lot.
 Now I am free of all these diseases and enjoying perfect health, and able to work whenever I like. Five years ago, I started taking 'Fruit-a-lives'. I took two every night and they worked wonders for me.
 No other medicine I could get was so good and I took lots of different remedies before I found out how good 'Fruit-a-lives' were.
 I keep 'Fruit-a-lives' on hand all the time, and am never without them. I even take them with me when I go on a long trip. 'Fruit-a-lives' are worthy of every good word I can say about them. The fact that they cured me of Piles, was something to be envied.

A Prophecy.

He said of William Lloyd Garrison that, for years, he closed all of his speeches against slavery with the sentence: 'It is wrong, it must go, and at last, he walked out one bright morning and looked over a new world, there came his eyes, like a great eagle, up to the skies and shouted, 'It was wrong; hallelujah, it has gone!' Out yonder I see America, redeemed, standing as an evangel among the nations of the earth, a land whose shores have been blessed with still, the brewery and the bar, and with them their evil brood, crime, pauperism, traffic in women, the social evil and larceny, a land most of whose prisons have been turned into granaries, banks and music halls; a land whose sons and daughters are born sound, sane, sober and with a Godward trend; a land whose redeemed people shall be the brightest crown of freedom's glorious coronate; a land whose sound, sane, sober, cultured, happy home life will be a greater protractate than a thousand dreadnoughts of the sea. In this great land of tomorrow, whose dawn is glinting the hills today, there are some now living who will look out over a new earth, and up into fairer skies, and shout, 'It was wrong, hallelujah, it has gone!'—Rev. W. L. Pickard, D. D., of Georgia.

Notes from the World's Convention.

Mrs. Boole then presented Hon. William M. Calder, Congressman from New York, who said in part:
 "I take great pleasure in extending to all of you the greeting of this city of I greet you, but also as a resident of this great metropolis. Your organization has done a remarkable work throughout the world in building character, in educating the people and in bringing about a condition of affairs which will ultimately mean the emancipation of mankind. I am a Christian man and an officer in a Christian church of this city, and in that capacity also I greet you."
 Rev. S. E. Ward, pastor Bedford Presbyterian church, gave a greeting for the churches. He said in part:
 "You never can come up with the woman. The indomitability will not be increased in Napoleon Bonaparte when he flashed his eyes again at the Alpine heights and said, 'There shall be no Alps,' as in you women who thirty years ago were organized in the World's Union under the leadership of the only woman whose statue stands in our National Capitol at Washington—that soul of pure flame in heaven of fragile clay—Frances Willard. Your daring, your tenacity in purpose, where have they a parallel? Did you know that you announced and marshalled against you the forces of a world selfish industry and did you not know that they had millions of votes and you had not a single one? Did you not know that they counted their dollars by thousands you counted your pennies? Did you know you were battling a giant custom-old street as the human race and that yours was the disadvantage of the innovator? And yet you dared to fight this battle and keep on. You could not have forgotten and must have been fearfully discouraged when you recalled the fact that priests and reformers had since earliest historic records fought with the liquor traffic, only to feel more bitterly and more sharply its awful power and to go down in defeat. Yet must have discovered that over in Great Britain, in Ireland and in this our own country, movements with the same end in view have gone down in defeat, yet notwithstanding all this you persisted and have gone on and won. I never saw the like of you— you are the most 'not in your ways' of any people I know. It is not enough for you to plead for total abstinence—others could do that—but you must work for and secure state legislation against the liquor traffic, and after that national legislation to carry it out. But that job is not enough for you. You are going to educate the youth of the land; you are going to bring to the god of Science to whom every body nowadays is bowing, you are going to show that the god of Science says we have got to get putting into our bodies that which destroys body and soul.

 Well, the temperance cause was here when women came and when your predecessors came, but you have given it illumination, emancipation, education, inspiration, aspiration, consecration, perspiration and desperation. I welcome you in behalf of the churches of America—oh, well, the churches of America—oh, well, you are the churches, ask any of us preachers. I am trying every Sunday and every prayer meeting night to get some system of arithmetic by which I can get as many men into heaven as women. You have come not only in the name of patriotism, but you have come in the name of Jesus of Nazareth, and have lifted up your banners and now you have come to New York City. In 1674 the Indians called the New York City of that day Manhattan, which means 'the place where they get drunk.' Your visit, foreign delegates and all white ribbon comrades, will help us to bring the blessed day when we shall rename New York City, 'the place where they all keep sober.'"

To Check a Cold.

It is easy to check a cold if you begin in time. Frequent doses of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Licorice and Turpentine keep the cough loose, allay the inflammation and prevent its spreading to the bronchial tubes and lungs. Mrs. S. M. Moore, Abingdon, B. C., writes: "I wish to state my gratitude for Dr. Chase's Syrup of Licorice and Turpentine. It cured a cold which a friend said would soon put me in the grave!"

She—I wonder why they hang that picture?

He—Perhaps they couldn't catch the artist.

A Wonder Worker.

"It beats like magic" is a favorite expression when Dr. Chase's Ointment is used. It works quickly, stops all itching at once, often heals in a single night. For eczema, salt rheum, barbers' itch, skin irritations and eruptions, it is a most satisfactory treatment. Being antiseptic, it prevents blood poisoning.

"I wish to complain," said the bride

"about that flour you sold me. It was tough."
 "Tough, my'am?" asked the grocer.
 "Yes, tough. I made a pie with it, and my husband could hardly eat it."

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT WILL RELIEVE YOU AT ONCE

Do not suffer from any of the following troubles, or from any other skin eruption, until you have used Dr. Chase's Ointment. It is a wonderful remedy for all such troubles. It is made in Toronto. Sample box free if you mail 10c. paper and postage to the manufacturer.

Notes from the World's Convention.

Commander—So you admit that Siamese Hodges was pulled out of his hammock and thrown into a life boat. Now, what part did you take in the affair?
 Sailor—The left leg, sir.
 Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
 This remedy has no superior for coughs and colds. It is pleasant to take. It contains no opium or other narcotic. It always cures. For sale by all dealers.
 Dr. Wm. C. C. R., in New York city played the march and other music for a wedding which was performed 70 miles away, in Augusta, Ga. The music was transmitted by telephone and included a selection composed especially for the bride.
 Best Cough Medicine for Children.
 "I am very glad to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, written Mrs. Lida Davy, Milwaukee, Wis. 'I have used it for years both for my children and myself and it never fails to relieve me—there is a cough or cold. No family with children should be without it as it gives almost immediate relief in cases of croup.' Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is pleasant and safe to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. For sale by all dealers."

Men and Cigars.

Because of his solemn-garb a cigar salesman was mistaken for a man of the cloth and invited to make a few remarks. He accepted the request and ascended the platform said:
 "Men are like cigars. Often you can tell by the wrapper what the filler is. Sometimes a good old stogie is more popular than an imported celebrity. Some men are all right in the show-case, on display, but are great disappointments when you get them home. No matter how fine a man is eventually he meets his match. A two for fifty cents or as many cents as a fifty-center. Some men never get to the front at all except during campaigns. Some are very fancy objects and are selected to present. Others have a rough exterior, but spread cheer and comfort about them because of what is inside. In all men, as all cigars, good or bad, two for stogie, rich or poor, come to ashes at last."

Morals and Manners.

Cleanliness is next to godliness. The apparel proclaims the man. Speech is the index of the mind. Clean lines give moral elevation. True delicacy is solid refinement. A loud voice bespeaks a vulgar man. R refinement creates beauty everywhere. If a man beats his speech will tell it. Slovenly attire betokens a careless mind. A foolish woman is known by her finery. Excessive laughter shows a shallow mind. Beauty without grace is a violet without scent. He is the best dressed who dresses no one but himself. The power of dress is great in commanding respect. The manner of speaking is an important matter. When the taste is purified, the morals are not easily corrupted. Laughter costs too much if it is bought at the expense of propriety. Such are the cares of themselves can hardly be mindful of others.

His Stomach Troubles Over.

Mr. Dypott, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Parker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heart burn, indigestion, and liver complaint until Chamberlain's Tablets, when my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers.

THE CAUSE OF RHEUMATISM.

It is frequently supposed that rheumatism is brought on by cold and lamp effects on the surface of the body, but this theory is wrong. Cold and damp only excites the disease that is settled in the blood. Rheumatism is a blood disease and Rheum is guaranteed to remove the cause and enrich the blood so that urine can no longer exist. Rheum is a wonderful rheumatic cure. If you have rheumatism in any form, don't delay going to Hugh H. Calkin's drug store and get a bottle of Rheumo tonic. $1.00 a large bottle. Be sure to go to Hugh H. Calkin's drug store cannot supply you.

HOW THIS WOMAN FOUND HEALTH

Would not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for All Rest of Medicine in the World.

Utes, Ohio.—"I suffered everything from a female weakness after my baby came. I had numb spells and was dizzy, had black spots before my eyes, my back ached and I was so weak I could hardly stand up. My face was yellow, even my fingernails were colorless and I had displacement. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I am stout, well and healthy. I can do all my own work and can walk to town and back and not get tired. I would not give your Vegetable Compound for all the rest of the medicine in the world. I tried doctor's medicine and they did me no good."

HEROES OF SHAFT AT NIAGARA PLANT

Remarkable Feat of Four Men Who Stopped Flood in Tunnel
 Three electricians working in a shaft at a power plant at Niagara Falls, three men with three boxes of dynamite grouped their way in pitch darkness through a circular chamber swarming with water in order to blast out ten tons of rock lodged unexpectedly in the tunnel's mouth.
 And then what? A few days later they did what mortal men have done neither before nor since; they climbed the face of Niagara Falls from the outside, crawled under the curtain of water that leaps out from the giant in the mouth of the tunnel. That time they were successful. The chance was cleared without the loss of a life. Here is the record of the feat.

WILLIAM SULZER

William Sulzer who was impeached from the Governorship of New York State was born to be a politician and a leader of men. He had an uphill fight all along the way, but by other genius or good luck never has been defeated. His father, Thos. Sulzer, was a politician before him, so much so that he suffered imprisonment for a year for his political activities. The elder Sulzer was a German patriot and a supporter of General Sigel and General Schurz. He was a strong advocate of constitutional liberty, and while a student at Heidelberg University, joined the patriots in a revolution in 1848. He was expelled from school for this, but his lot with the Democrats. This was in 1851. The elder Sulzer married soon after he arrived here. His wife was from Dutch and Scotch-Irish stock. They lived in the New Jersey city for several years, and then William Sulzer was born. Soon afterward they removed to New York, and young Sulzer, who was accordingly named after his father, was sent to the Public Schools and was graduated, despite the fact that it cost many a hard effort and sacrifice on the part of his father and mother. Afterward he was sent to Columbia University, where he studied law. Both in the Public Schools and at college he was recognized as a forcible speaker. An early as 1864, when Mr. Sulzer was but twenty-one years of age he attracted attention as a masterly orator.

Market for Flax Fibre

As a considerable quantity of flax is harvested in Canada every year, the attention of firms interested may be drawn to the market in Leeds, Ontario, for flax fibre. Spinners there have followed with close attention the development of the growth of the flax plant in Western Canada and are desirous of receiving shipments of the fibre if it can be obtained on competitive terms with supplies from other sources. Some three years ago a few small trial shipments of unretted flax fibre were sent from Canada to Mr. J. M. Munn, Canadian trade commissioner at Leeds who consumers express their readiness to give their consideration to offers that may be received at any time from Canadian firms interested in seeking export markets for this fibre.
