W. OMNSLOW

Our Country with its United Interests.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

Board of Works

Vol. XXII.-No. 43

Newcastle, N. B., Wednesday, August 7, 4889.

WHOLE NO. 1135.

*		oOo	Selli g for.	Former pric
No. 1. Parlor 2. 1 " 3. 1 " 4. 1 " 5. 1 " 6. 1 " 7. 1 " 84. 1 " 84. 1 " 86. 1 " 84. 1 "	Suit, 7-pcs. 7 pcs. 7 pcs. 7 pcs. 6 pcs. 7 pcs.	Divan "Raw Silk, " "Old Gold do., Hair Cloth Plush bands, Ebony Frame, Divan Olive Plush, Crimson Plush, ""	$35.00 45.00 55.00 60.00 65.00 55.00 45.00 55.00 55.00 65.00	$45.00 55.00 65.00 75.00 80.00 65.00 65.00 70.00 70.00 70.00 80.00

These goods are for Cash only at the above prices.

Newcastle, July 27, 1889.

Law and Collection Office CANADA

M. ADAMS.

Barrister & Attorney at Law, dicitor in Bankruptcy, Convey-ancer, Nota-v Public, etc. keal Estate & Fire Insurance Agent.

CUAIMS collected in all parts Mice:-NEWCASIL-,

L. J. TWEEDIE, ATTORNEY & BARRISTER

AT LAW. NOTARY PUBLIC, CONVEYANCER, &c.

OFFICE-Old Bank Montreal

J D. PHINNEY. Barrister & Attorney at Law NOLARY PUBLIC, &c., RICHIBUCTO, N. B. OFFICE-COURT HOUSE SQUARE.

May 4, 1885. O. J. MacCULLY, M.A., M. D.,

Memb. BOY. COL. SURG., LONDON, SPECIAL ST, VISRASES OF EXE, ELR & THROAT, Off e: Cir. Westmorland and Main Strets Moneton, Nov. 12, 86.

Barrister, Proctor for Estates Notary Public, Sc.

OFFICE. Rugine House, Newcastle, Mirawichi, N. B

Dr. R. Nicholson,

Office and Residence.

McCULLAM ST., NEWCASTLE

Dr. W. A. Ferguson,

up stairs in SUTHERLAND &

Newcastle March 12, 1889. Dr. H. A. FISH Newcastle, N. B. March 25, 1889.

KEARY HOUSE (Formerly PILBUR'S HOTEL,)

BATHURST, N. B. THOS. F. KEARY Proprieto

ERMS $1.50 per day; with Sample

Newcastle. WATCHES.

B. Fairey,

GUARANTEED.

-AND-

Mt. Allison Ladies' Cullege

SACKVILLE, N. B.

The Fall term of this well known institution opens August 29th. The course of study, engaging 11 teachers, extend from the Primary branches through the whole University curriculum to the degree of B. A. The Shorthand and Type writing department is designed to prepare students for the practical duties of teachers life.

The Musical Conservatory is under the

The Musical Consecutive and the direction of an eminent graduate of Stuttgast Vocal Culture is taught by a lady pupil of Max Merezek, the teacher of Patti. Here Robert Mahr the Violini t received his musical and are the direction of Joachim abover many the violini t received his musical education under the direction of Joachim, the greatest living violin artist.

The Fine Arts department is maintained in a high state of efficiency.

The location is exceedingly healthful and the terms moderate.

For cataly great analysts.

For catal gue apply to

REV. B. C. BORDEN, M. A.,

Principal.

100 BOXES.

TELEPHONES

J. D. B. F. MACKENZIE, Managers MacDougall Snowball, Notice.

FOR SALE.

A good fishing stand at Little Pockshaw, Gloucester Co., for all kinds of fish: Salmon, Lobster, Codfish, Mackere!, etc. Consists of

Ten Acres

william Hanley.

and board fence; two large and commodic fish buildings on same; a nice brook throu the place, and a good public road leading good quarties. In the centre of Parish New Bandon.

MIRAMICHI

Pockshaw, N. B., April 4th, 1889.

Dingman's

For sale low to the Trade.

Chatham, April 10, 1889,

Moncton, July 29.

Soap.

HOUSE Chatham, New Brunswick, m. JOHNSTON, Proprietor. A full assortment ready REGULATED for Considerable outlay has been made on the ouse to make it a first class Hotel and trave leve bouse to make it a first class Hotel and trave lers still find it a desirable temporary residence both as regards location and comfort. It it situated within two minutes walk of Steamboat landing and Telegraph and Post Offices.

The proprietor returns thanks to the Public for the encouragement given him in the pastical will endeavor by courtesy and attention to refit the same in the forume.

GOOD SAMPLE ROOMS

Clifton House. Princess and 143 Germain Street,

ST. JOHN, N. B. A. N. PETERS, PROPRIETOR, Heated by steam throughout. Prompt a on and moderate charges. Telep cation with all parts of the city.

April 6, 1885. LAMP GOODS

On hand a argestock of LAMPS of all Kinds. CORNERS, CAIMNEYS, fhades, Globes, Wicks, etc AT LOWSET PRICES. J. R. CAMERON. 63 Prince W.n. Street. St. John Feb. 22, 1886.

GEO. STABLES, TEW CASTLE, - - - N. B.

Auctioneer & Commission Merchant. Goods of all kinds handled on Commiss and prompt retians made.

Will attend to Auctions in Town and Country a satisfactory manner. Newcastle, Arg. 11, '85.

LEATHER & SHOE FINDINGS.

The Subribers return thanks to their na mercus contomers for past favors and would say that they keep constantly on hand a fu'll supply of the best quality of Goods to be had sud at lowest rates for cash. Also S. R. Foster & Son's Nails and Tacks of alisizes, and Clark & Son's Boot Trees, Lasts, &c. English fors, as well as home-made Tops to order, of he best material. Wholesale and Retail. J. J. CHRISTIE, & CO.

Property to Lease.

The premises recently occupied in Newcastle by Mr. Frank Morrison, comprising Resi-dence, Barn and Garden. For particulars apply to M. Adams, Newcastle, May 13, 1889.

ESTEY'S COD OIL Pally have you any idea what the Child is crying fool Nothing seems to quiet Yes, mean; she wents more of ESTETS Cod Liver Oil Cream. the Medicine and cored her cold:

PREPARED BY E. M. ESTEY, PHARMEIST MONCTON, N.B.

FOR SALE BY ALLDRUGGISTS or sale by E. Lee Street, Newcastle, N. B.

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair

Vigor. No matter what the color of charm. Should the

Ayer's Hair Vigor

the old soft and shiny. For the scalp clean, cool, and "I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only caused the hair of my wife and daughter to be Abundant and Glossy, but it has given my rather stunted mustache a respectable length and appearance."—R. Britton, Oakland, Ohio. "My hair was coming out (without any assistance from my wife, either). I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, using only one bottle, and I now have as fine a head of hair as any one could wish for."

—R. T. Schmittou, Dickson, Tenn.

-R. T. Schmittou, Dickson, Tenn.
"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results." — Benjamin M. Johnson, M. D., Thomas Hill, Mo. Watch and Jewelry repairing Jewelry made to order. H. WILLISTON & CO. "My hair was becoming harsh and dry, Next Waverley Hotel, Newcastle, N. J but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel,"—Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill. Ayer's Hair Vigor, PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Aver & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sarsaparilla.

The Great Purifier

A. J. BABANG & CO.

BLOOD AND HUMORS

THIS YEAR'S CUT AND PLUG SMOKING TOBACCO FINER THAN EVER.

There being several applications from partie in Chathem and Newcastle for Telephones, the managers of the Miramichi Telephone Exchange would respectfully ask all parties who are desirous of joining the exchange in either town to communicate with them direct or to either of the central offices, so that the new instruments may be in running order before navigation opens and the busy season commences.

In Bronze on snd what you do eat distresses you. You are low spirited and languid. You are nervous, and at nights roll and losson your bed and caunot steep. This is all caused by your system being run down and requiring something to brace it up, and make you feel all right again. To secretaily our system being run down and requiring something to brace it up, and make you feel all right again. To secretaily our money, sorr? inquired and the sternly. IRON IRON IRON ed and renovated.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

STEAM BRICK WORKS ESTEY'S Iron and Quinine Tonic. BRICK MANUFACTURED After using it for a shortime you will find

All orders attended to promptly. Telephone Exchange, No. 4, Nelson. Brick delivered f. o. b. cars or at wharf, or can be got at the store of Mr. Wm. Massou.

G. A. & H. S. FLETT Ne.son, Mitamichi, N. B. Feb. 20, 1888.

INFORMATION

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

ESTEY'S IRON AND QUININE TONIC I will pay the highest prices in cash for any the following RAW FURS:—Otter, Beaver, and ket the genuine. Price 50 cents, 6 bottles $2.50. JAMES BROWN.

Prepared only by E. M. EsTAY, Moncton Newcastle, Oct. 12, 1887.

for Infants and Children.

Selected Siterature. Beauty

IS KISSING BRIBERY ?

The MacWhittle of Whittlemuir, was n it, as every one knows, a rich man when Fushkith at the next election. He had done the same. bought the estate of old Lord Whinarbeg, whose shepherd he had been in the diys of auld lang syne,' before the noble 1 ad had taken to speculating in Turkish bonds; and he had brought with him MacWhittle, as she blew a kiss toward from the gold diggings a hearty, sun-barnt wife and a jovial troop of grownup sons and daughters. The sitting member for Fashkirk was at that time another MacWhittle, who call ! titter in the court. ed himself the only genuine MacWhittle, Aweel, my seesters and I just kussed and hastened to denounce his new clans- the whole toon, I do believe,' continued man from Australia as a spurious imita- Miss MacWhittle, archly. 'We meant was the chief of a younger branch of well ken. Noo, shalf I read out my list MacWhittle, naturally gave his prefer-ence to the Australian MacWhittle; so 'First there waur the provost.' that the MacWhittle who sat for Fashkirk had his nose put altogether out of joint. What is worse, many of the pious folks in town accused the good man of Stop, please."

'Stop!' exclaimed that worshiptul and blushing magistrate, who was installed on his bench in his chain and robe.—

'Stop, l' exclaimed that worshiptul and blushing magistrate, who was installed on his bench in his chain and robe.—

'Stop, please."

"But for argument's sake, suppose ye lowing reply:

would be valued as if ye did some other nice thing? What I am trying to prove I am simply about in regular handfuls, like corn seed from which the sower expects a good crop.

It soon became evident that the new dissolved in the spring of that same year the new MacWhittle wrested the seat Whittle, the new MacWhittle wrested the seat whittle wrested the seat whittle times. The junior one, Lord MacPep- phires. of the Free Kirk, whose service he re-

This agent, a gentleman named Crewke, fenced off every question put to him by breezily. 'Would you oblige me by the answer that he had received orders reading it? to carry money about them when they the question, and I have nothing more to isu't braiberee.'

'You might give an equivalent, my ud,' answered Mr. Crewke. 'A check for instance,' suggested Lord MacPepperwraith. No, something nicer, my lud. What can be nicer than checks? asked Lord Drapinthee, in solemn be-Your appetite improved, your spirits become Anyhow a vote bought is a vote illemore cheerful, and you gally obtained,' remarked the counsel feel and know that ev- for the petitioner.

ery fibre and tissue of ' I didn't mean to use the word buy, I should have said procure,' exclaimed Mr.

your body is being brac-Ciewke. mean, sit? asked Lord MacPepperwraith ing is not bribery.'

> and suggested that it would be well to bench to decide that point be call the Misses MacWhittle and let them 'We'll retire to consider,' chimed in a thing to be laughed at it doth not partake of the nature of corrooption.'
>
> Indiana saloon-keepers are hot with a thing to be laughed at it doth not partake of the nature of corrooption.'
>
> Of Pythias assembled at Indianapolis, that he need not trouble himselt to sug. ment by-and-by,' > gest things, as the judges knew what So saying, the two judges swept out of Mr. Crewke thereupon stepped nimbly alone they looked at each other in a silk, a skirt of crimson satin looped up sherry, Lord MacPepperwraith with gold cord, straw-colored gloves, down a glass of water, then the latter with twelve buttons, and a hat -oh, such said, sympathetically: 'Of course, a hat !-with a white feather almost a kussing is braiberee.

Whitt is rand the gloyer counten- propriety was scandalized. ance full on him, and the judge collapsed, eYe wouldna be coaxed out of your me to try teetotalism?" "Yes, I think saying meekly, 'Ye'll tell the whole vote by it, if a braw wench like that I did, but that has not done you any truth, noo, I'm sure.'

the argument does not apply, affirmed fool enough to tell my patients," when he returned two years since, and gave to the folks in Fashkirk to buy votes Lord MacPepperwraith.

Kusses!' chorused two the judges. 'Did ye say kusses!

'Yes; things like this,' laughed Miss MacWhittle, as she blew a kiss toward could be valued at a guinea, a sixpence plied, and then hereferred me to a certain family that I knew very well, and worthy's ears turn red hot.

tion. Lord Whinanberg, however, who father should be elected and he was, as ye responded Lord Drapinthee. 'Perhaps receiver's taste for them.

from his rival by a majority of about The young gentleman, on stepping into ing him up. the witness box, amid general excitement,
But thereupon the elder MacWhittle created an impression almost as favorable

What d'ye mean, mon? asked Lord church, he holds his sympossium in his MacPepperwraith, startled by the unsaloon and takesint he dollars across his was wroth, and vowed that the election as his sisters had produced; indeed it was masking of this new battery. had been won by 'braiberie and corruption." He filed a petition, and in due of the audience was concerned, though Judge, with his usual smileless gravity. very hard-headed, austere men, with no geted rather uneasily when the handsome taste for joking and no grasp for humor. laddie kissed the book. Dugald was a influence.' Condemn it. I have used it and to good taste for joking and no grasp for humor. The senior one, old Lord Drapinthee, young fellow of twenty-two, who was 'Oh, Donald, 'tisn't kind of ve to reperwratth, was a hot, pimply, peppery. You will tell the whole truth, if you for Weebles, and his conscience smote

'It shall be as you please,' retorted gularly attended, and banned all the pas. Dugald, smiling; and he, too, like his noney, sorr ? inquired Lord Drapin- rose, looking very fierce, and was about nae mair.'

'That's enough, sir. My lud, my case is completed. As the witness has confessed to procuring votes by illicit means, further.' the other counsel, rising. 'I contend whether kissing was bribery.

the court called in loud tones for Miss clearing their thoughts, took off their wigs. Then they took off their gowns That damsel forthwith appeared in a and sat down to a table on which were costume which puzzled the eyes of the set wine, water and biscuits. Lord beholder. She had on a jersey of cherry Drapinthee helped himself to a glass of yard long. But you should have seen 'Aweel, I doubt it,' responded the the light of her eyes, the dimples on her other. 'To constituote a bribe there Hull, one of the finest doctors of his years and find no need for any.—Dr. N. cheek, and the smile of her small mouth! must, I take it, be a tender of some object time, to become a teetotaler; and some S Davis. These beat the beauties of her dress all of some specific value. New, how much would you value a kuss?

'Tura your face this way, please,' I wouldna value it at all, if not given time after when I met him he said to me said Lord Drapinthee, adjusting his spec- me by a member of my own familee,' re- -" Mr. Garrett, it was a bad day for me tacles to get a better view. Miss Mac-joined Lord MacPepperwraith, whose when I got to know you." "How is MacWhittle gave it ye?

were) of kisses, smiles and other bland- well very soon, and kept well." kisses that were given, so much the less said : _"I have been the medical ad 'Go ain, miss,' said his lordship, in a was their value, and as the MacWhittle of that family for 40 years, and se dom choking tone, while there was an audible girls and boys had kissed the 'whole or never had a bill of less than £2) to

> Then he ended by putting this pertinent that my bill for the last year was only 'Now, if you, Brother MacPepper wraith, were to knss the whole toon of Fashkirk-'I wouldn't do it,' answered his lordship, angrily.

But for argument's sake, suppose ye mayor of Keokuk, Iowa, made the folhaving lied to them, or telled them lees, in having so long palmed himself off as 'Stop! My lud, is this evidence?' in is this, that kisses partake of those airy

'Aweel, then they constitute undue fought at short range, and that is what It soon became evident that the new MacWhittle would carry everything below the polls, and so it proved, ladies, exclaimed the counsel, amid generate the polls, and so it proved, for when Parliament was unexpectedly eral merriment. 'I'd rather call the de-course a brace of judges came down in some of the barristers noticed that a few 'I remember that when ye were a candi- up his saloon. I believe in it—that of state to try the same in the little court of of the Fashkirk dames who had been ac- date for Weebles ye shook honds wi' a course does not justify it; neither does Fashkirk. Now these judges were both commodated with seats on the bench fire tinker and sweep, and kussed the baby the saying that it is not right by others

The senior one, old Lord Draphithee, Just then holding a commission in the call the backslidings of my youth, WHERE THEY DON'T DRINK JAkey after dinner in convivial company militia, preparatory to getting one in the ejaculated Lord MacPepperwraith, draw-and would smile under the influence of dragoons. He had a frank, mirthful ing his handkerchief across his eyes as if the potation, but he never smiled at other face, and eves which sparkled like sap- from emotion. The fact is the old fellow had passed his 60th year when he stood elected.

counsel had done with him.

'So that is the list of the ladies on you the truth, I believe that Dugald in the mill don't drink it. Their chief was, however, a lawyer, and quite as whom you bestowed kisses, Mr. Mac-MacWhittle will end by marrying my drink is sugar and water."—Rochester sharp as either of the two judges. He 'A weel its not a case of conscien-

then, but one of law,' remarked Lord from his principal not to bribe, that he 'I would much rather not,' laughed MacPepperwraith, shaking his colfaseination and power had a passion for to speak, when one of the ladies on the 'As ye please,' answered Lord Mac- to pledge each other in renewed and bench uttered a piteous sort of a squeal Pepperwraith, who had sunk back in his eternal friendship, when the young man and fainted. Now, this lady was none chair with a happy look on his face, for paused, and said to his intemperate other than the counsel's own wife, whereupon the learned gentleman remained 'I—I shook that sweep's hand and become a drunkard will you take the for a moment with his mouth open, un-able to utter a word till at length he fal-ished me ye know for I didna get elect. "Set down that glass!" It was set down

I will not waste the time of the court term -gathered in court when the judg- the responsibility, the ruin of health, the 'And I will not waste it either by was announced, for the judgment involv- of property, the breaking up of families, that the petitioner has failed to produce You could have heard a pin drop as drink ?"—are there not some who would "Why do you say things you don't any evidence that will hold water. Kiss- Lord MacPepperwraith, pronouncing say: "Take back the license, let me Who told ye that, sir? asked Lord was duly seated and that the petition than win the wealth and comforts of this Mr. Crewke stammered an apology MacPeppetwraith, severely. It's for the md suggested that it would be well to bench to decide that point, as

So it is a law in Scotland at present, June 5th, voted by two-thirds majority. their business was better than he did. the court-room. But when they were that a pretty woman who kisses an elec-

Temperance. THE BILL GREW LESS.

The Rev. Charles Garrett in a recent temperance address said :- "I remember drink, fermented or distilled, for internal that I once persuaded Dr. Munro, of Use in the treatment of disease for 40 that," I asked. " Did you not persuade he left his native town of Fashkirk some 'Oh, ai, ye'll hear the full truth frae the reply, "It has done agreat that of the reply agree announced his attent or of contesting for my father; and my seesters, they've . The other judge looked embarrassed, I should have been all right, but it did reply. "If I had only kept it to myself and began a disquisition on the subject mes on much good that wherever I went of specific valuables, in which he sought I told my patients, and they imitated me, and the result is that they all got hments. He asked whether a kiss "You don't mean that." "I do," he retoon, their osculations could hardly be £40 yearly; but I persuaded them all to considered as things of much worth, become teetotalers, and I declare to you

TO FIGHT THE SALOONS

Having been harshly criticized for employing a detective to procure evidence gainst a law breaking saloon keeper, the

'I am not trying to reform anybody. I am simply trying to enforce the law. the only genuine MacWhittle. The M.

P. was rather prudent with his money, whereas the ex-Australian scattered his whereas the ex-Australian scattered his have level by called the witness yerself,"

All the trousers in Keokuk can be worn the property of the same and which have a value according to the library and the property of the property of the library and the property of the while the prayer meeting goes on in the ndgety judge, who was popularly believed not to have a best point. He lived on cold water and vegetables, was a number of the Free Kirk whose service he remore. Everything they can get for the gularly attended, and banned all the pastimes of this earth, even to smoking, as temptations of the devil. It seemed that with such judges as these the new Macwith such judges as these the new Mac 'Aweel, I wilna boast over ye, Fergus, more than sugar, and anything that will ESTEY'S YOUR BLOOD wants toning up. You have no appetite, but the Mac Whittle's daughters—braw, you are low spirited.

ESTEY'S YOUR BLOOD wants toning up. You have no appetite, but in vain; as often in turn would he syou. You are low spirited to brandy which nothing could control.

Often a friend remonstrated with him, but in vain; as often in turn would he was so much up-brandy which nothing could control.

Often a friend remonstrated with him, but in vain; as often in turn would he was so much up-brandy which nothing could control.

Often a friend remonstrated with him, but in vain; as often in turn would he was so much up-brandy which nothing could control.

Often a friend remonstrated with him, but in vain; as often in turn would he was so much up-brandy which nothing could control.

Often a friend remonstrated with him, but in vain; as often in turn would he was so much up-brandy which nothing could control.

Often a friend remonstrated with him, but in vain; as often in turn would he was so much up-brandy which nothing could control.

Often a friend remonstrated with him, but in vain; as often in turn would he was so much up-brandy which nothing could control.

Often a friend remonstrated with him, but in vain; as often in turn would he was so much up-brandy which nothing could control.

Often a friend remonstrated with him, but in vain; as often in turn would he was so much up-brandy which nothing could control. to him, and they walked up to the bar. ask of this witness, said the counsel for Nor undue influence, said Lord The keeper said : "Gentlemen, what will 'How can you buy anything without the defence, whereupon the other counsel Draphinthee; 'its like handshaking- you have !" "Wine, sir." The glasses were filled and the friends stood ready > and the two walked away." * * * * * * And if every liquor dealer who asks

> There were a great many solicitors—or for a license to traffic in the souls of men, writers to the signet, to use the correct was asked : "Are you willing to take ment on the Fashkirk election petition broken hearts, the loss of life, the waste making an unmeaning speech, observed ed a great point of law-namely : as to the blighting of hope and damnation of hell, that waits upon the traffic in strong judgment, declared that the defendant rather live a life of poverty and of toil, tor does not bribe, and uses no undue friends immediately appealed to the supreme lodge. It is stated that nearly me-fourth of the order in Indiana is either identified with or in favor of the traffic, and if the action of the State

> Grand Lodge is sustained, many will I have prescribed no form of alcoholic Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

