SCORES OF HUNTERS ENTER THE FORESTS.

Enthusiastic Sportsmen to be Found in Every Section of Miramichi Woods.

THOSE WHO ARE THERE.

List of Names of Hunters and Guides Who Will Help Make This a Banner Season.

If some at least, of the big members of the antler tribe which persisted in grazing during the summer in the meadows of the Miramichi farmers, are not soon brought to their last exit it will probably be due to the scores of enthusiastic sportsmen who have taken to the tall timbers during the past week.

There are probably more big game hunters in the woods of the Miramichi at the present time than there ever was at the same season of the year. The number will be augmented as the season progresses. The lordly moose is their principal quarry but of course they are on the look out for deer and caribou too.

Chief Game Warden Robinson told a reporter for the Advocate yesterday that the present season would be beyond doubt a banner one for big game in Northumberland. Mr. Robinson has been kept constantly busy issuing licenses, procuring guides, etc. and he expects to be kept busy until the close of the season.

So far no captures of importance have been reported. The following is a complete list of those in the woods at the present time, with the names of the guides and hunting grounds.

E. B. Holmes and E. P. Holmes of Brookline, Mass. Guides, Arthur Pringle and John Jarvis. Hunting ground, south branch, main North West and Big Bald Mountain.

N. C. Nash and C. W. Hienman, Boston. Guides, Sydney Thomas and David Pringle. South Branch Lakes and Big Bald Mountain.

Arthur Robinson and wife, New York, and Miss Emily Bradford, Quebec. Guides, Henry Braithwaite, Thos. Canadian and Jerry Fowler; packman, Geo. Brown; cook, Chas. Cameron. Moccasin Lake, Squaw Barren Brook and Graham Plains, Little South West.

Edwin C. Johnson and Fred A. Johnson, Uxbridge, Conn. Guides, Edw. Way and Robert Way; cook, Jerry Mullin. Little River Lakes, North West.

J. T. Stirling, Old Roads Inn, London, England. Guide, Donald Fraser; cook, Wm. Dickes. Bay du Vin district.

W. J. Poindexter and wife, Reading, Penn. Guides, J. R. McDonald and Jas. McKenzie; cook, Peter Bulino. Dunganvon, Main South West waters.

W. Stanley Ray, State Printer for Pennsylvania, and Senator Harris, both of Harrisburg, Pa. Guides, Carl Bering and James Street; packman, Joseph Hosford; cook, Allan Matchett. North Branch of Seville and Clear Water Lakes.

Dr. D. J. Brown and wife, Springfield, Mass. Guide, James Manderville, Jr.; cook, John Stewart. Dunganvon (main).

J. N. McCulloch and W. T. Sears, Harrisburg, Pa. Guides, Geo. McKay and Chas. King; cook, Geo. Leach. Tomogrope Lakes, South Branch.

Carl Pickard, New York, J. H. Von Gilken, Germany. Guides, Norris Mauderville and Robt. McNeil; cook, M. Urquhart. North Branch Renous Lakes.

Capt. G. E. Rigby, London, England. Guide, Wm. Parks; cook, Wm. Duncan. South Branch Renous Lakes.

J. P. Gregg and A. H. Rosingarten, Philadelphia, Pa. Guides, David and Robt. Manderville; cook, Alex. Stewart. North Renous, McKendrick Lakes.

Nicol Linsea and George W. Hubbell, New York. Guide, Daniel Bohan. Barnaby River Lakes.

H. S. Coykendall and F. H. Coykendall, New York. Guides, Edw. Menzies, John Keating, James Brander and Dan. Donovan, Jr.; cooks, Archie Stewart and Nevil Whitney. Little North Branch Lakes, Little Bald Mountain.

R. G. Packard, Jr., R. G. Packard, Sr., New York. Guides, John Connell and Martin Fox; cook, Fred Connell. Tabunatac and Ekedellia.

J. H. Davies, Liberty, Indiana. Guide, Bert Donald; packman, Joseph Arbo; cook, Alex. Arbo. Muzraul Brook and Cain's River.

Henry R. Deidel, New York. Guide, Howard Manderville; cook, Peter Stewart.

DAVID R. C. BROWN PLEDGES SUPPORT.

Colorado Multi-Millionaire Praises the Mitchell Memorial Movement.

BIG MEETING CALLED.

All Towns and Parishes Will Be Represented at Gathering Here on Oct. 4th.

At a largely attended meeting of the provisional committee of the Mitchell Memorial held last Thursday evening in the Town Hall it was decided to call a big meeting in the Town Hall here, for Tuesday evening, Oct. 4th.

The Town of Chatham and all parishes in the County are invited to send representatives and the meeting will no doubt be very largely attended and a permanent committee appointed to carry on the work.

Last week Mr. Osborne Brown, son of Mayor Brown, received a letter from his brother, Mr. David R. C. Brown, the Colorado multi-millionaire, in which the Mitchell memorial movement was strongly praised and assurance of hearty support given.

In speaking of the movement the St. John Freeman observes—

"The matter of erecting a monument to the late Hon. Peter Mitchell is now well under way. An efficient committee is earnestly endeavoring to have a suitable memorial statue to the deceased statesman placed in the shiretown of Northumberland, the county which Mr. Mitchell long and faithfully represented in parliament. The sentiment underlying this movement is a noble one, deserving of every encouragement, and it is to be hoped that before long the erection of a monument will be an accomplished fact."

THE LATE MR. HACHEY.

BATHURST, Sept. 15.—The funeral of John W. Hachey, the victim of the unfortunate shooting accident of Tuesday last, took place this morning at 9 o'clock from his late residence, Bathurst Village. The procession was one of the largest and most respectable ever seen in Bathurst and was certainly an indication both of the sorrow and regret of his fellow townsmen for the terrible accident which has cut off a bright life in its happy youth, and of respect and sympathy for the grief-stricken family.

The local Branch of the C. M. B. A. of which the deceased was a member accompanied the remains of his brother to the grave.

High Mass was celebrated in the Bathurst Village Church, the Rev. S. J. Doucet of Grand Anse being celebrant, and being assisted by Rev. Wm. Varrilly of Bathurst Village, and Rev. J. Martin of Bathurst. The service was extremely solemn and edifying.

MEISTER GLEE SINGERS.

The Meister Glee Singers are recognized as the pre-eminent masters of Joice and Part Song Singing in Great Britain—the home of the art. The quartette which was formed some twelve years ago has gained a fame in England never attained by any other musical organization, and its continued career of success is a speaking evidence of its artistic excellence. So much in demand has been their services at home that the present tour is the first opportunity they have been able to secure of crossing the Atlantic.

They have had the honor of singing before Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, His Majesty the King, and other members of the royal family.

It may be stated without exaggeration that the Canadian public have never yet heard anything in the art of singing to equal the delightful work of the Meister Glee Singers.

SENATOR HALE'S SON FIGURES IN SCRAPES

Two Sportsmen Start to Take Possession of Newcastle on Their arrival here.

EVEN ENTERED HOUSES.

Legal Proceedings Threatened on Return of Men From The Hunting Grounds.

Two sportsmen who subsequently gave their names as Hale and Morris, started to take possession of Newcastle on their arrival here by the Ocean Limited last Thursday afternoon but they were quickly given to understand that law and order prevail here as well as elsewhere.

Hale is a son of United States Senator Hale of Maine, followed by his companion, entered the depot as soon as the Limited pulled up and immediately began to make "rough house." Not contented with this the pair rushed upstairs to the residence of Station Agent Humphrey. It was then that several railway men put in an appearance and forcibly ejected both men from the premises.

Hale and Morris then started down town to make preparations to go in search of big game. Guide Jack Wamboldt had been engaged for them and soon all was in readiness for a start for the woods. But Hale and Morris figured on having some more fun in Newcastle before they made the start and forthwith wandered up Pleasant street from the Waverly Hotel. The first thing that caught their eye was a sleeping dog on the sidewalk. The animal belonged to David Cool and one of the pair it is alleged kicked it whereupon a young son of Mr. Cool's went to the dog's rescue. It is alleged that one of the men then kicked the boy in the jaw.

The next heard of the pair was when they were driving out of town. They entered a residence on the outskirts, climbed a flight of stairs and entered a woman's bedroom. The occupant of the room was addressing Hale and Morris evidently thought that discretion was the better part of valor for they made a hasty retreat. They are now looking for big game in the Cusagus Lake district. Legal proceedings here are threatened on their return. For particulars of the exploits of Hale and Morris at Moncton, see page 2.

ORDERED OUT.

Former Miramichi Barrister Has An Interesting Time In Western Court.

A despatch from Calgary under date of Sept. 12, says—Mr. R. B. Bennett, M. P., and a member of the legal firm of Loughheed & Bennett, was twice ejected from the court room at the Mounted Police barracks. Mr. Bennett appeared for the Canadian Pacific Railway in the case of George Lloyd, who was employed to plough fire guards. Lloyd was charged with assaulting Mrs. Haskins when she refused him admittance to her ranch. There was a discussion between Mr. Bennett and Col. Sanders, the magistrate, as to the trying of the case, and the latter ruled against the lawyer's opinion. Mr. Bennett then said it was little use his coming to court at the barracks. He had appeared in this case against the advice of his firm. The magistrate took this as an insult to the court and ordered the lawyer out. He did not go, and a mounted policeman took him by the arm and led him to the door. Mr. Bennett gave notice of an action against Col. Sanders for $1,000. In the afternoon, when the case was called again, Mr. Bennett was on hand, but Col. Sanders ordered him to leave. He was not disposed to obey, and a policeman again took him out. Another notice was given that Mr. Bennett would sue for $3,000. [Mr. Bennett formerly resided in Chatham and it well known here.]

ROYAL BANK'S SUCCESS.

A despatch last week from Montreal states: The Royal Bank of Canada through its various branches in Cuba, has been chosen for the task of distributing to Cuban war veterans the sum of $31,000,000 due in connection with the recent war of the revolution which culminated in the great struggle between United States and Spain. This amount, which was recently raised by a loan, represents only half of the bank's pay due. American law will be met by the bank's issue of $15,000,000 in bonds. The amount with its interest will be made up to $31,000,000. The fact that the Royal Bank of Canada has been chosen for the government's duty is a testimony to its credit and its financial strength.
