Municipalities. Ottawa, Jan. 9--In the House afternoon Hon G E Foster ou share towards the Pacific end or project. He asked if Mr. Sifton ment. The premier r plied he stood as giving a pledge, he had expressed an opinion. Mr. Monk inquired if Mr. Sif had a letter to any member of British government. The premier,-"Does the hon, gent man wish to ask, 'Did I give him letter of introduction?'

Mr. Monk—"Yes."

The premier—"I have no objecti to saying I did give him a letter." premier informed R. L. Bord that the government was aware t Japanese, but none had occurred

The remainder of the afternoon cion was taken up in the consideration of Hon. Mr. Oliver's bills spicting the survey of public lan and to amend the Irrigation act. Several clauses of the former wh was first dealt with were put through with little discussion and the bill v given its second and third reading Protection of Municipalities. The irrigation bill proved a mo-beyond the explanatory stage. During the recess Mr. Oliver added se eral clauses which were discussed fore Christmas and had the bill printed. The clause for the prote ion of the municipalities provol considerable discussion. The mi ister explained he had secured oninion from the department of it tice, that as the consent of the icipalities was necessary to pe to dictate such terms as would of the irrigation companies when conflict with the municipalities' trol of their own arrangements.

Mr. McCarthy, Calgary, Mr. Borde and others, offered some criticis the bill. The former reserved to of Alberta Municipalities which to works already constructed or municipal boundaries so as t clude the district in which the wo commenced. Mr. Oliver's Explanation. Hon. Mr. Oliver was inclined think the municipalities could pro for that in making their original rangements with the irrigation panies. It might be a serious ma to interfere too much with some la irrigation projects now under we he thought the clause as fran would meet present require There were no immediate difficult in sight and it might be well to w and see the trend of circumstan before doing any more. The pres necessity was to protect the rights the municipalities.
