Wheat From India.

TWO MILLION TONS FOR GREAT BRITAIN.

A big scheme, involving an outlay of at least £20,000,000 by the Indian Government, has been completed, whereby all wheat not needed for Indian consumption and sold at normal prices in the United Kingdom. Some of the wheat is already on its way.

It is confidently believed that the step will avert a further rise in the price of bread. The scheme is the outcome of the Indian Government's decision, announced some time ago, to control all wheat exports till March, 1916.

It is officially estimated that with 22,148,000 acres under cultivation the yield—a record one—will be 10,238,000 tons. Last year it was 8,427,000 tons. After allowing for ordinary Indian requirements, a surplus of 2,000,000 tons will be available for export.

The price of wheat to the Indian sellers will not be regulated by the price ruling in London; it will be determined by the Indian Government. As the season progresses the maximum price will gradually be reduced.

"If the Government had not taken the matter in hand," said an official of the India Office, "the price of bread in India would have risen because of the export demands."

Our Volunteers.

Three volunteers enlisted with the Reserve Force yesterday which makes a total of 1,927 enrolled to date. The names of yesterday's volunteers are:

Leo Walsh, St. John's.
Fred J. Lewis, St. John's.
Thos. P. O'Neill, Hr. Grace.

In the morning the men went countrywards for drill, and after having dinner at Smithville they returned to the city and attended the baseball game as guests of the League Executive. On return to the Armoury and before being dismissed they were addressed by Capt. R. Montgomerie in similar terms as on the day previous. He emphasized the necessity of acting up to the Company's motto which is "steady." He said that sooner or later they would be called upon to fight for the Empire and Homeland, and impressed upon them their duty as true soldiers of the Empire and worthy sons of her Oldest Colony. He then announced the results of the recent N. C. O. Exams. and presented the chevrons to the following:

To be Corporals—L. C. J. Benister, Ptes. B. Hann, P. J. Cashin, F. Cornick, A. Alcock, P. O. Wolverson, B. Brown.

To be Lance-Corporals—Ptes. L. F. Hickey, J. Dimpsey, F. Jerrett, A. D. Jesso, T. D. P. P. C. Guy, S. P. H. Jackson, T. Flynn, L. Sheppard, D. Collins, H. Sellars, W. Pheasant, S. Gosse, A. Cahill, F. M. Burke, B. Crocker.

After the parade had been dismissed Capt. Montgomerie instructed the newly appointed N. C. O's on the duties that devolved upon them, and paid a worthy tribute to the work of Instructor O'Grady who prepared them for the exams.

League Football.

The Collegians and Stars are the contestants in this evening's football match. The probable players are:—

Collegians:—Goal, Quick; backs, Barrett, King; halves, A. Pike, H. Barnes, J. Pike; forwards, Gen. Auckinleck, Kendrick, Ellis and Coultas.
Stars:—Goal, Walsh; backs, T. Duggan, W. Thompson; halves, W. Hart, L. Kavanagh, Brien; forwards, Morgan, W. Caul, Dalton, F. Wheilan, H. Wheilan.

Presentations.

On Tuesday last the candidates for stripes in the recent non-coms. exams. presented Instructor O'Grady with a handsome pipe as an appreciation of his efforts in their behalf. Lieut. Mellor was also the recipient of a splendid meerschaum from the men of No. 8 platoon. Both officers expressed their appreciation of the gifts in suitable terms and congratulated the men on the excellent discipline shown during their period of training.

GERMANS SAY GAS WEAPON IS GOD'S WILL.

Petrograd, June 10.—The Russians have obtained copies of the German Staff Order, issued to the troops on the river Bzura in Central Poland:

"God himself is on our side and fights for us in our conflict against the whole world. We, by will of the Almighty, have had put into our hands a new and mighty weapon, those gases wherewith we have defeated our enemies. The power and domination of Germany over all Europe are our only aims in this war, and we must allow nothing to stop us in gaining a final and now assured victory. Ere two months have passed our foes will be beaten into the dust."

FRENCH AND BOTHA.

Capetown, May 26. — Sir John French has sent the following message to General Botha:

"Pray accept our heartiest congratulations on your splendid feat of arms. The British army under my command is full of admiration for the fine work done by your comrades in arms in South Africa. Please convey my regards and congratulations to my old friend General Smuts."

General Botha sent the following reply:

"Cordial thanks for your kind message. All the soldiers in the Union of South Africa follow with keen interest the splendid achievement of your gallant army for the common cause under your able directions."

Teaching Men to be Brutes.

Germans Carefully Train Their Soldiers to be Ruthless.

(By a retired British Officer.)
Brutality is, in many respects, the keynote to the training of the German soldier in times of peace. How thoroughly he has learned his lesson the world has recently seen—to its horror.

In Germany, however, the people frankly recognise that the Kaiser's army is maintained and trained solely with the idea of ruthless warfare.

"Rob! Burn! Kill!" is its motto, and the treatment meted out to the luckless recruit by his sergeant has the aim of impressing him to go and practice similar "ruthlessness."

The part played by the German sergeant is, indeed, a very pernicious one. He is a professional soldier, drawn largely from the lowest classes, and ill-paid. When you consider that this low-caste, underpaid man has almost the power of life and death over his men, you can understand what abuses he is responsible for.

He can make the life of the conscript under him a veritable inferno; and he usually does, unless the unhappy man is prepared to purchase his leniency. There is no form of persecution and brutality which he will not practice until his victim is often driven to self-mutilation or suicide as a way of escape, or until, provoked beyond endurance, he strikes the sergeant, and as the result is led out to be shot.

Stories of Fendish Punishments.

I could tell you some terrible stories I heard in Germany of their fendish ingenuity in devising punishments for recruits who decline, or are too poor to "oil their palms." One man, for instance, was made to march for hours round the barrack square, carrying heavy weights, until he fell from exhaustion, then he was brutally kicked until he got up. Staggering a few steps more, he fell again and again until, finally, unconscious and a mass of bruises, he was carried off to the hospital. The very cadets, boys of twelve, are often cruelly bullied by their seniors—until it is their turn to play the bully, when they do it to the life.

For the slightest offence I have known these boys to be thrashed or kicked mercilessly. One lad I knew well was made to stand for half an hour on tiptoe with a heavy weight on his head, and was slashed across the face with a dog-whip every time his heels touched the ground.

Another, while hanging by his hands from a very high horizontal bar. Then he fell to the ground from he had drawn himself up on to the bar. Then he fell to the ground from exhaustion and broke both his arms.

What Are You Doing for that Eczema?

"Nothing; I've about given up trying to cure it."

"That is not wise. Do as I did and you will probably be cured in a short time. I used Zylex and Zylex Soap with it and my Eczema began to improve at once. A couple of boxes cured. You can get Zylex at your druggist's."

AMERICANS NOW LEAVING GER- MANY IN LARGE NUMBERS.

London, June 9.—J. C. Segreue telegraphs to the Daily Chronicle from Chiasso:

"Since the beginning of the month the stream of Americans from Germany into Italy has assumed considerable proportions. Most of them take the journey direct to Genoa, where they embark for the United States. Others are anxious to see Italy in wartime before returning home via Liverpool.

"Almost all very big business men of the once numerous American colonies either in Berlin or Munich, and only the present state of strained diplomatic relations induced them to leave Germany, where they have, as often as not, important business interests. All agree the position of Americans in Germany has become intolerable."
