BRITISH WORKERS POSTPONE HOLIDAY.

LONDON, July 13. The Government has decided to ask workers to forego their August holidays, owing to the demand for munitions in France. Trade Unions already have suggested that this be done, so that no difficulty is looked for. Premier Asquith announced to the Commons this afternoon that the August Bank holiday would be postponed by Royal Proclamation appealed to all classes to postpone all holidays until the Entente Allied offensive had made further definite progress. The Premier said that happily there was an ample supply of munitions at present, but the daily consumption was enormous.

STRIKE IN PROTEST.

AMSTERDAM, July 13. The Socialist newspaper Tribune asserts that 55,000 workmen employed in munitions factories and on electrical works have gone on strike in protest against the prison sentence on Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the Socialist leader, for participation in the May Day demonstration in Berlin.

ARTILLERY DUELS.

1 PETROGRAD, July 13. The capture of 2,000 prisoners on the Stripe in Galicia, was announced by the War Office to-day. On the Stokod in Volhynia there has been artillery duels.

JAPAN'S NAVY.

TOKIO, July 13. Despatches stating that Japan has authorized the construction of four super-dreadnoughts, is untrue and misleading. According to press reports, which are contradictory, the navy has submitted to the Finance Department a repletion programme to be introduced in the Japanese Diet involving the expenditure of about 250,000,000 yen in seven years. This programme calls for the construction of three super-dreadnoughts, two battle-cruisers, numerous light cruisers, destroyers and submarines. Officials to-day declined to discuss the programme, saying that the Japanese press accounts of it are surmises.

SINK BRITISH TRAWLERS.

LONDON, July 13. Following the attack by a German submarine on the British port of Seaham harbor on Tuesday night, a submarine raid on the fishing fleet near the English coast is reported by Lloyds to-day. The German submarine attacked the British fleet off the northeastern coast, and sank the trawlers Florence and Dalhousie and several smaller vessels.

QUIET ON THE FRONT.

PARIS, July 13. An official to-night reads: Except for somewhat spirited bombardment in the sector of Souville on the right bank of the Meuse, there is no event of importance to report on the front.

BIG SHARKS KILLED.

NEW YORK, July 13. A monster shark, whose stomach contained part of a human body, was killed at Keyport, N.J., to-day, according to information received at the Weather Bureau here from the Observer.

LONG BRANCH, N.J., July 13.—A shark weighing three hundred pounds, being eleven feet long, was killed near the mouth of Mattawan Creek, N.J., and is undoubtedly the same fish which yesterday invaded the Creek and killed two bathers.

GLASGOW WANTS IT "WET."
GLASGOW, July 13. Prohibition in Scotland is impracticable, in the opinion of the Liquor Control Board. It is stated that this is the substance of a reply to a deputation representing many thousands of women, who signed the petition urging the adoption of prohibition for the period of the war.

SHACKLETON SAILS.

PUNTA ARENAS, Chile, July 13. Sir Ernest Shackleton, the British Antarctic explorer, who on returning from the South Polar zone last April, left twenty-two of his companions on Elephant Island, sailed from this port to-day on a small schooner to rescue them. If conditions are favorable, Sir Ernest expects to relieve the marooned explorers, and return to Chile in four weeks.

RUSIANS DRIVEN BACK.

BERLIN, July 13. German troops under command of General Count Von Bothmer, by a encircling attack, have driven back the Russian forces which pushed forward in the region northwest of Bureczac in Galicia.
