United States Must Accept Responsibilities

Ulster Will Not Stand for Irish Republic--Weekly Return of Casualties in Sinn Fein Warfare--U.S. Marine Strikers Offer Rejected.

U. S. AND DISARMAMENT.

WASHINGTON, May 6. In its discussion to-day the Cabinet is said to have shown a disposition to feel that United States interests could not be properly protected and furthered in the light of present world relationships, unless the United States participated at least in an unofficial character in the meeting of bodies now dealing with the European situation. Officials made it plain that the United States representatives on the Supreme Council will not have power to bind the United States to any course of action independently, but will act chiefly as observers. It has been indicated that one of the first subjects of a general character to be taken up by Col. Harvey in the Supreme Council will be the question of a world conference for disarmament.

U. S. TO BE REPRESENTED.

WASHINGTON, May 6. The United States has decided to send an unofficial representative to the Supreme Council and Council of Ambassadors in Europe. The decision, which was reached after Harding and his Cabinet had spent practically all day in discussion of the matter, carried with it the determination to have the United States represented on the Reparations Commission.

Rolland W. Boyden, now serving as United States Commissioner at Paris, will be the representative of the United States on the Reparations Commission.

NO REPUBLIC, SAYS CRAIG.

BELFAST, May 6. Speaking here to-night, Sir James Craig, referring to his conference with Eamonn De Valera, said: "I only hope the expectations of immediate peace may not be too high, either across the Channel or here." It has been learned from high authority that in his conversation with De Valera, Sir James gave the Republic leader to understand that Ulster would under no circumstances ever entertain the idea of assenting to an Irish Republic.

ULSTER'S ATTITUDE.

BELFAST, May 6. The Ulster Unionist party, in a meeting called by Sir James Craig, Premier designate of Ulster, to hear his report of the meeting with Eamonn De Valera, decided to-day that Ulster, having accepted the Government of Ireland Act, could make no further concessions. The conversation between Sir James Craig and Eamonn De Valera is said in well informed circles to have reached an impasse.

MOTHER naturally thinks of the possibilities of the fabric shrinking in the wash. It is therefore a relief to her to know that the fabric will not shrink or lose its charm if Lux is used for its cleansing.

Durability, charm of colour, quality of texture, the freshness of newness—these are preserved to all good fabrics washed with Lux. A packet of Lux, a bowl of warm water—and dainty fabrics can cleanse delightful fabrics in a delightfully easy manner.

The beautiful pure Lux flakes are whisked into a creamy, bubbly lather in an instant. Gently squeeze this cleansing foam through and through the soiled texture—then rinse in clean water and hang to dry. Lux cannot harm a silken thread. It comes rather than forces the dirt from the clothes.

Packets (two sizes) may be obtained everywhere.

over the question of a Republic. This would explain the attitude adopted by the Unionists in their meeting.

VICE-ROY AND PREMIER CONFERENCE.

LONDON, May 6. Viscount Fitzalan, the new Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, had conference with Lloyd George to-day, but it is authoritatively stated that the position of the Government with regard to Ireland is unchanged, and there is no proposal for direct negotiations, and no ground for supposing that the Premier will meet the leaders of Sinn Fein.

WEEKLY CASUALTY LIST.

DUBLIN, May 6. Thirty-six attacks on Crown Forces with twenty-eight casualties, one fatal, are reported in the weekly summary from Dublin Castle to-day. There were twelve successful attacks on police barracks, the report says, and three Sinn Fein murders of civilians.

JOB PRINTERS' STRIKE.

BUFFALO, May 6. A statement issued to the Canadian Press by a representative of the Ontario and Quebec typographers' association says with regard to the job printers' strike: "Twenty-two large cities, exclusive of Chicago and New York, give a total of 2,236 shops, employing 21,000 men, of which only 797 shops are affected, with 7,700 men on strike. All important plants present a solid front."

C. A. P. TO WIND UP.

TORONTO, May 6. At a meeting of the Canadian Associated Press, yesterday it was unanimously decided to take the necessary steps to wind up the company. The Canadian Associated Press was organized by the late John Ross Robertson in 1904, and since that date has been of great value to newspapers in covering British events of particular interest to Canadians.

TERMS REJECTED.

NEW YORK, May 6. The Executive Committee of the United States steamship owners' Association to-day rejected the conditions proposed as a basis for settling the nation-wide strike.

ZYSKO IS VICTORIOUS.

NEW YORK, May 6. Stanislaus Zysko of Poland, won the world's heavyweight wrestling championship here to-day by defeating Stranger Lewis of California with a neck lock, after twenty-three minutes wrestling. Lewis tried for his famous head lock and missed, falling on his back. The Pole pounced on him and pinned his shoulders to the mat.

The Demands of People.

TO JOIN SOME ORGANIZATION OR CONTRIBUTE TO SOME CAUSE.

Editor Daily Recorder: WITH many demands on people of late, I am enclosing a somewhat unique reply to a request sent me from the United States, which you might publish, as I am sure it will be appreciated by many people hereabouts.

Yours,
A READER.

THIS IS A REPLY TO A REQUEST TO JOIN AN ORGANIZATION OR CONTRIBUTE VOLUNTARILY TO SOME CAUSE.

Gentlemen: For the following reasons I am unable to send you the cheque you ask for: I have been held up, held down, sandbagged, walked on, sat on, jumped on, flattened out, straightened out and squeezed, first by the United States Government for the Federal war tax, income tax, surtax, excess profit tax, corporation tax, property tax, the Liberty loan, thrift stamps, war-saving stamps, State, county and city taxes, the capital stock tax, automobile tax, the dog tax, the merchant's license, the broker's license, chauffeur licenses and by every society and organization that the inventive mind of man can invent to extract and subtract what I may or may not possess.

Next from the Society of St. John the Baptist, the K. of C., the G. A. R., the Women's Relief, the W. C. T. U., the Women's League, the Army League, the Navy League, the Red Cross, the White Cross, the Children's Home, the Old Men's Home, the Old Ladies' Home, the D. of A. Society, the Daughters of the Revolution, the Jewish Relief, the Armenian Sufferers, the Belgian Relief, the American Relief and every hospital in town.

The Government has so governed my business that I do not know who owns it; I am impeded, suspected, examined and re-examined, informed, required, requested and commanded, so I don't know who I am, what I am, where I am or why I am here or if I am here. All I know is, and this I don't know, that I am supposed to be an inexhaustible supply of money for every human and inhuman need, thought, desire or hope of the human race and because I will not sell all I have and go out and beg, borrow and steal money to give way to people I do not know and never expect to see again, and for a cause I know nothing about or never expect to learn anything about, I have been abused, cursed, discussed, knocked, boycotted, talked to, talked at, talked about, lied to, lied at, lied about, held up, and

Mrs. A. Lacasse Is Enjoying Life Again, She States

Quebec Woman Says She Is In Just Splendid Health And Feels Fine Since Taking Tanlac.

"I am now enjoying life and good health for the first time in over two years," said Mrs. Arthur Lacasse, 134 Petit Champlain St., Quebec, "and I owe it all to Tanlac." "Before I took Tanlac I never knew what it was to eat a meal without suffering afterwards. My stomach and liver were badly out of order, and I had dreadful nausea, dizziness, and sick headaches. At times I had such sinking spells I thought my time had come. I was dreadfully weak and run-down, was nervous, and at night I lay awake for hours, worrying, suffering and wondering if there was nothing that would help me. "But Tanlac did me good from the first few doses, and now, after taking a few bottles my stomach is in perfect condition. I eat hearty, sleep fine, never have a headache or feel nervous or dizzy, but am strong and well and feel good all the time. I just feel like praising Tanlac to the skies."

His Back Has Not Bothered Him Since

WHY M. WASSIN KNOWS DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS ARE GOOD.

New Brunswick Man Is Enthusiastic Over the Remedy That Brought Him Relief—Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Sisson Ridge, Victoria Co., N.B., May 6.—(Special)—"I know Dodd's Kidney Pills are good." These emphatic words come from Mr. Manzer Wassin, a well-known and highly respected resident here. "I had an awful lame back," Mr. Wassin continued. "I tried two good doctors and they could do nothing for me. So I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills, and before I had taken three boxes I was as well as ever. My back has not bothered me since. I cannot say too much for Dodd's Kidney Pills." Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely a kidney remedy. They strengthen the kidneys and put them in condition to do their full work at straining the impurities, the seeds of disease, out of the blood.

If you have any of the symptoms of kidney disease ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the remedy you are looking for.

Jones says:—"Remember the proverb, the things only come to those who hustle while they wait." Well, you can't afford to wait until the last day to get your tickets for "What Happened to Jones." You must hustle down to the Royal Stationary Co.'s store now. They won't last long, because, it's for the orphans—m.d.f.

Negotiating Terms.

Yesterday afternoon the Employers' Association met in the Board of Trade Rooms when a letter containing the new proposals to the L.S.P.U. was drafted. The communication was received by the Secretary of the Union at 6 p.m. last evening and a meeting of the L.S.P.U. was called to take place this afternoon.

The Civil Servants Must Pay the Piper.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—Rumor has it that the pay of the Civil servants is to be cut 20 per cent, and though the public read of this in our newspapers with all other local items, they hardly realize just what it means, for they know not of what the Civil servants really get. It is a peculiar fact that from time immemorial, or as long as there has been a Civil service, this body of men have been the worst paid in all ranks of our wage earners, and Governments and peoples have failed to see this fact, that the Civil servants of the country are doing some of the most particular work in the country. Of this, later, I am going now to give you some statistics of those wonderful earnings of the Civil servants, and which figures our progressive and Liberal Government are going to take 20% away from. Men in the Custom House and Post Office after over forty years duty, receive this dose, according to service, of $1820.00 a year. In private concerns (had they entered such places at the commencement of their careers) they would certainly be receiving at least $3500.00 or $3600.00. The average clerk, he has worked for a grateful Government and a grateful people from twenty to thirty-five years, receives $900.00 a year, or seventy-five a month, whilst the rank and file receive less than this.

Imagine it, Mr. Editor! Imagine a family man seeking to keep his family on such a figure. To clothe, feed, support and observe the proprieties that a decent life demands. All this, sir, on from fifty to seventy dollars a month, think it over. It sounds funny doesn't it? It appears like a problem in something which at immediate sight one knows cannot be done. Take to-day, sir, any order of laboring class, I do not care what class it is, and every individual in it will consider the earnings of fifty, sixty or seventy dollars a month a poor return for work done, and yet this is what the up-to-date Government is going to ask the Civil servants to accept.

I wonder can Mr. R. A. Squires live on this? I wonder what would be his attitude to any man or body of men who would suggest such a proposition to him? I wonder if "Boss" Coaker seeks to take out a future, existence on fifty, sixty or seventy dollars a month? I wonder if the doughty Campbell, or Brownrigg or Warren, or the rest of the "sorry" crew hope to draw so small a figure to keep their families going in the future?

Well, next election, gentlemen, we will meet you, and the Civil servants will greet that day that marks your approach to us to seek to cut us again, and we think that you will rather be surprised at the reception you—gentlemen—will receive. You are cutting us to-day 20%, but in the hour to come there will not be enough of you left politically to make 20% in power or standing.

To you Squires and Co., we Civil servants owe nothing. Cashin, God bless him—he is rugged, but he has a feeling nature—gave us the salary which we have to-day, and Squires and Co., he will again see fit to recognize the Civil servant as a factor in the demanding duties which he so well abuses. Of the present Government such a step as the one which is now foretold, was to be expected, for their motto was: "Grasp all, give nothing," and this insinua has been

Conspicuous nose pores grow larger if neglected

THE pores of your face are not as fine as those on other parts of your body.

On the nose, especially, there are more fat glands, and there is more activity of the pores. If these pores are not properly stimulated and cleansed, they clog up and become enlarged.

To reduce enlarged pores, follow every night this simple treatment:

Wring a soft cloth from very hot water, lather it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face.

When the heat has expanded the pores, rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's.

Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive.

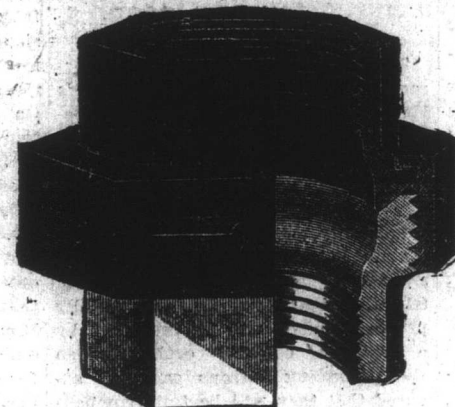

Finish by rubbing the nose for 30 seconds with a piece of ice.

GET a cake of Woodbury's today, at any drug store or toilet goods counter, and see what an improvement this treatment will make the first time you use it.

Do not expect to change in a week a condition resulting from long neglect. But follow the treatment persistently and you will be able to reduce the enlarged pores and make them inconspicuous.

A 25-cent cake of Woodbury's lasts for a month or six weeks of this treatment and for general cleansing use. The Andrew Jergens Co., Cincinnati, New York and Perth, Ontario.

their standard of excellence ever since an unthinking people gave to them the reins of power—and an unfortunate day it was.

Squires and Coaker and the rest may soon and civil at those lines written by a Civil servant, but from the moment the salary of that Civil servant is decreased he will by pen and word show the pusillanimous couple that he for one does not take their effort with good grace. Let the Government consider what they do before the fat goes further. There are Civil servants in this city and country to-day who possess more acumen, ability and as much mental alertness as a dozen of the figures who sit on the Government benches at the House.

You will hear from me again, Mr. Editor, and the next time I shall fire a lady customer, shot at him with ink, too, I promise you.

Yours very truly,
A CIVIL SERVANT.

Suicide Epidemic Has Gripped Rome.

Rome.—(Dominion News Service.)—An epidemic of suicide has gripped Rome. Every day the newspapers, under the heading, "The Weary of Life," report suicides which are often due to the most trivial motives.

Recently two girls, before flinging themselves into the Tiber together, carefully dressed themselves in their smartest clothes, with patent-leather shoes and silk stockings. They had been disappointed in love.

A shoemaker's wife, suspecting her husband of paying undue attention to a lady customer, shot at him with a revolver, but missed, and then blew out her own brains.

Another young woman, recently married, was perturbed by her husband's non-arrival for dinner, and after waiting half an hour, took poison. A servant girl of fifteen threw herself from a fourth-storey window because her mistress rebuked her.

Several soldiers in barracks have committed suicide. One man, possibly less weary of life than he thought, bade adieu to the world at the top of his voice before hanging himself. Owing to this precaution he was cut down in time to escape serious injury.

Thus far British officers and soldiers of the Army of Occupation on the Rhine, to the number of 112, have married German wives.
