out the middle of the afternoon these dies were taken by surprise by a number of relatives and friends and all enjoyed a very old fashioned visit, followed by tea and lunch at five o'clock. On leaving for their respective homes all wished these ladies many happy returns of the day and many of them.

Have You Appendicitis And Don't Know it?

Much so-called stomach trouble is really chronic appendicitis. This can often be relieved by simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, etc., as mixed in Adierka. Most medicines act only on lower bowel but Adierka acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes all gasses and poisons. Brings out matter you never thought was in your system. E. A. Caughell & Co.

Much sympathy is expressed for the family of the late William Gregory in their sad bereavement. Mr. Gregory will be greatly missed in the Methodist Church. He has been on the Quarterly Official Board of the church for the past thirty-eight years, and was one of the best attendants of the Adult Bible Class of the Sunday School.

The funeral of the late W. L. Gregory was held Thursday afternoon, May 16th, from the residence of his daughter south of the village. The funeral was largely attended, which spoke of the respect and esteem in which the deceased was held.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Dr. Hussar, and the Methodist Church Choir were also in attendance. The pall bearers were: Arthur Clark, Pt. Stanley, E. D. White, L. H. Jones, S. K. Smith, C. Dennis and I. D. Laidlaw. Interment was made in South cemetery, Sparta. The floral tributes were beautiful, including a wreath
