LONDON AND PRECINCTS.

The proper way to secure employment, or consummate mercantile transactions in all fields, is to advertise in the ADVERTISER. The business man will see your Want Ad. and your wishes will be fulfilled.

—The Emerald Beneficial Association will have an excursion to Toronto —Mr. J. M. Denton is attending the meeting of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association at Niagara.

—Professor McCullum, of Toronto University, is spending a few days with his brother, Dr. McCullum, Dundas Street.

—On Tuesday a 2-year-old son of T. C.

Beattie, of Pond Mills, fell into a pot of hot oil cake porridge and had his arm badly scalded. The case was dismissed, as it was found that the dog had been destroyed.

—A number of parties are being formed at surrounding towns to attend the great concert here on Saturday of next week,

July 19, to be given by the celebrated

Liberati and his aggregation of eminent musicians.

—Eight carloads filled with pleasure-seekers left for the Port on the weekly expression train this morning. A number of extra cars were attached in order to accommodate some Sunday school picnics from St. Thomas.

—Rev. J. A. Murray, in a letter from New Westminster, B. C., to friends in this city, states that the trip west has done very much towards restoring his health. He will remain for a short time the guest of his sister-in-law at New Westminster.

—The Trustees of the Protestant Orphan's

Home acknowledge, with sincere gratitude, the kind donation of $10 25 from the city

Orangemen and True Blues, being the proceeds of the annual collection taken up in Memorial Church July 6, and presented by Mr. James H. Mustill.

—Rev. Canon Richardson and the choir boys of the Memorial Church will commence a week's camping out at Port Stanley on Monday next. They expect to have a good time and are getting the tents and other supplies in readiness. The annual

Sunday school picnic of the Memorial Church will be held at the same place next Wednesday.

—Mr. Wm. H. Salmon, on the eve of his departure from Milwaukee, was received a handsome volume of Miss Clifford's complete poems from the Devotional Committee. He will spend the summer at his home in London, Canada, and in the fall go to Yale College in preparation for the ministry.—[Church

Voice, Chicago.

—The garden party at Springbank tomorrow (Friday) evening promises to be a great success. The residence of Mr. Chas.

A. Kingston, Princess Avenue, was crowded last evening with the large committee of ladies who met to make final preparations.

Every arrangement possible for the comfort of those who attend has been made, and the members of Victoria Club expect hearty support.

—Mrs. H. T. Smith, jun., of Toronto, who arrived in this city last Saturday to spend a few weeks with relatives and friends, was suddenly summoned home last night by a telegram announcing that her husband had met with a painful accident.

While riding on a street car Tuesday afternoon a lighted cigar in the hands of a fellow-passenger came in contact with Mr.

Smith's eye, burning it badly. The accident, though painful, is not considered serious. Mr. Smith's many friends in this city will be pleased to hear of his speedy recovery.

Short-handed Picnic.

The students of Mr. W. C. Coo's shorthand assembly held a picnic at Port Stanley yesterday. A large number of fair steno-graphers, under the care of their gentleman, attended, and enjoyed the exhilarating breezes of the lake. Refreshments and accompanying festivities were indulged in and the picnickers returned invigorated for renewed efforts at the mytic art.
