don, Star of the West, Pride of the South and Perseverance Lodges of the Canadian Order of Oddfellows, Manchester Unity, attended divine worship in St. James' Church, South London. The members met Interesting Educational Sermons at the Methodist Church.

The annual educational sermons of the London West Methodist Church were preached yesterday by Principal Austin, of the Alma Ladies' College, St. Thomas, in the morning, and by Rev. Dr. Potts, of Toronto, in the evening. Dr. Potts discoursed from Isaiah hii, 7-10, and dwelt principally on the words, "How beautiful upon the good tidings that publisheth peace; thy watchman shall hif up the voice; break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God." Although these words were sung 700 years before the birth of Christ, said they speaker, yet they were clearly prophetic of his birth. The scene referred to was that of the shepherds upon the plains when they saw the Star of Bethle, he m that guided them over the mountains to the city with the glad tidings. He did not believe the world was growing worse. The reverend gentleman then pointed out the applicability of the text to his hearers in a foreible manner, showing how the term 'the waste places of Jerusalem' could he applied to glade to be able to say that it was one of the wealthiest orders of its kind in the world. The contributions received in England during the year were $3,410,000; for sick benefits, $2,780,000; and for funeral explaces of Jerusalem' could he applied to places of Jerusalem' could he applied to places of Jerusalem' could he applied to at the lodge rooms, Richmond street, and, ment, which was one of the greatest factors in civilization. The constitution, the speaker thought, would be fairly stated in the three words, "faith, hope and charity." Faith in God in whom all Christians profess to believe. It was also by faith that it was possible to recognize the existence of a God. Hope signified an anchor, while charity or love was one of the greatest gems, and its place in the society's constitution bespoke much in its favor.
