east as Belleville) are: Light to moderate ture.

—The grounds surrounding St. Paul's Cathedral are being beautified and the facade of the building improved. Cronyn Hall is being torn down.

—Miss Alexander, the elocutionist, had her jewels stolen this week. Sarah Howes, who had been sewing for her, was arrested. She wore part of the jewels.

—The Alerts talk of running an excusion to Guelph on Aug. 6, when the first battle with the Maple Leafs will be fought.
It will probably decide the western championship.

—The Ottawa Citizen says: Prof. Robertson, of the Experimental Farm, is to be married in the autumn. The prospective bride is Miss Ryckman, B.A., graduate of Toronto University, daughter of Rev. Dr.
Ryckman, formerly pastor of the Dominion Methodist Church here.

—The collectors of taxes for 1893 are busy making out warrants to be placed in the bailiffs' hands Monday morning for all 1893 taxes in arrears. Consequently after Saturday, July 28, payments will have to be made to bailiffs, the collectors having new rolls for 1894 on hand.

—An assembly was held last night under the auspices of the Knights of Sherwood Forest in the agricultural hall in Queen's Park. The affair was well patronized and proved very successful. The knights marched out in a body, headed by a band.
A number of St. Thomas brethren drove over to participate.

—Yesterday afternoon the firemen were called to a burning car at the old Grand Trunk roundhouse in East London. The car was pretty well burned and the doors of the building had commenced to burn.
A man reported that he had seen a couple of boys running away from the scene just before the fire was discovered.

—Rev. E. P. Mackay, missionary secretary of the Presbyterian Church, has received a letter from Central India stating that Mrs. C. R. Wood, who is out there as a missionary, is ill, and has had to suspend work. Letters from Honan, China, state that Rev. Dr. Smith, who lately left for that far field of missionary activity, has reached China safely and in good health.

—Mr. Smythe's (Conservative) majority of one in Kingston has been accounted for.
It was polled by a youth 20 years old. He was so tickled at having cast the winning ballot that he wrote to London, gleefully informing his sister that Mr. Smythe owed his election to him. The news was too good to keep. It became noised around here, and from London traveled to Kingston, where the Liberal managers have discovered the story to be true.

—Mme. de Sartorius has been elected Paris mother-general of the Paris of the Sacred Heart, the place left vacant by the death of Mme. Lenon, of Montreal. Mme. de Sartorius for years has been one of the assistant mother-generals. She is the fourth to occupy this position, and is the last connecting link between the present members and Mme. Borat, the foundress, from whom she was the last to receive the ring and cross of the professed nun.

—Brigadier Margetts writes in this week's War City: "Now for London. London is to be honored. Mrs. Booth is coming on the 29th and 30th; Major Compin will accompany her. We shall have music and singing. If you want to have two treats in one meeting come along and hear "Farewell and 'Me Join 'Em, or 'Over and 'Over" and "War City." Either of these songs will be A 1, but Mrs. Booth will be A 1, 2 and 3 as well. Now, we have a chance to get blessed and inspired. Everybody pray and believe for, and push the meetings. But Mrs. Booth is not going to cease with merely doing London. She is down for Galt, Aug. 6; Berlin, Aug. 7; Stratford, Aug. 16; Strathroy, Aug. 17, and Patoka, Aug. 19. All hail. Now for a shaking up. Keep believing to see something happen."

—Although it is now midsummer and many members are out of the city, there was an attendance of 40 at the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. Tuesday. A most interesting and helpful Bible lesson was given by Rev. B. Clement, and also a short account of the proceedings at the late Dominion convention in Montreal. During the summer months the meetings are more especially educational, and the programme for the day was "Temperance Talks by Local Women." These proved most interesting. Mesdames Wilson, Lawless and Heaman taking part. Miss Brown, of South London, rendered a solo entitled "The New Kingdom" in a pleasing manner.
The next meeting will be held on Aug. 14, in charge of Mesdames (Rev.) Ira Smith and J. W. Jones, and preparations are being made to have it particularly interesting.

—The old calomel treatment for chronic troubles of the digestive system should never be resorted to. Eseljay's Liver Lozenges contain no mercury or calomel or other mineral poisons, but are a harmless vegetable compound. A regular course of treatment with this medicine for the worst forms of dyspepsia, indigestion, chronic constipation, impure blood, pimples, etc., only involves the use of a few boxes. If your tongue is coated it indicates that you require them and you should get a box at once. Remember to ask for Eseljay's Liver Lozenges.

Chief Attraction.

Among the chief attractions in the proce-sion of the Cook & Whitty circus last Saturday was the yellow wagon, which conveys through all of Canada that most desirable of cures—Williams' Royal Crown Remedy. This is what Mr. Weir says, whose life it saved: "This is a most marvelous cure. I became pale as a corpse; my blood seemed to be turned to water. I had dizziness and a ringing noise in my head; my hands and feet were cold all the time, and my limbs were completely swollen up to the body. Some doctors called it consumption of the blood. I got so weak that I could not walk, and finally took to my bed." Mrs. Weir says: "All Mr. Weir has told you is true. At times he lay for days unconscious and unable to take nourishment of any kind, and was reduced to a mere skeleton of 84 pounds; and I fully believe if we had been any day later in getting Williams' Royal Crown Remedy he would be in his grave today. So it may well be said 'Williams' Royal Crown Remedy saved John Weir's life.' The best druggists keep Royal Crown Remedy; but if your druggist does not, write direct to Isaac Williams Company, London, and they will send it to you by first express. The price at which Royal Crown Remedy is sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with any other medical treatment. Six bottles for can therefore be looked forward of the opportunity of hearing Mrs. Booth.

Other visitors, too, are coming, as follows: Elsie Henricks, Strathroy, and Christine Mackenzie (Ingersoll), Wheelan (Tilsou-

"high" time.

Collector, Not Treasurer.

It is the late London West tax collector, and not the late treasurer, that has gone away and left his accounts in a muddle.
The accounts of Mr. Wm. Nichols, the late treasurer, were duly audited and found absolutely correct, and he was completely vindicated from the attacks that were made on him.

A Former London Printer.

The July issue of Printer and Publisher, Toronto, has an excellent likeness and sketch of the life of Andrew Denholm, of Blenheim, formerly of this city and now proprietor of the Blenheim News. The following is clipped from the article:

"In Blenheim, Ont., and publisher of the Blenheim News, lives a graduate of the London ADVERTISER office. Born in London, in 1856, of sturdy Scotch parents, Andrew Denholm entered the ADVERTISER office in 1873. Leaving there in 1880, he engaged in outside work for two years, and in 1882 took control of the Kincairdine Standard. After putting some life into this paper, he sold it in 1885 to Joseph Lane, now of the Owen Sound Plaindealer. In February, 1886, Mr. Den-holm started the Oxford Standard, Woodstock, a paper which boomed with the town in 1886 and 1887. In 1889 Mr. Denholm went to Blenheim. Mr. Denholm, while in London, was president of the Typographical Union. While in Kincairdine he was one of the high school trustees. While in Woodstock he turned out the first daily town ever saw, and a proud moment it was both for the town and the publisher. Here also he was a leading society man and president of a co-operative factory. A considerable measure of success has fallen to Mr. Denholm's lot in this world, and Blenheim has in him a worthy citizen, and the Ontario press a member whose ability and reputation is indeed enviable."

WHISKARD'S.

Enlargement of the Premises—Another Store Added.

T. O. Whiskard, the proprietor of Whiskard's fancy store, 232 Dundas street, has added another store to his premises, being the vacant store, 230 Dundas street.
Connection has been made inside the two places by making neat and convenient arches. During the past few months the business has increased to such an extent that it was a case of necessity to find more room for customers and goods. This firm has now been in business for a quarter of a century, and the success they have gained is through the close prices at which goods are always obtained at their store. They enjoy a patronage from the London public that is to be envied. Their store is always crisscrossed. The clerks are always obliging.
Bargains are advertised every day in the ADVERTISER. Their stores are 230 and 232 Dundas street.
