Thornhill, in the person of Mrs. Leeds ity exists, there will be no advance in the price of bread. The bakers in several of the Canadian cities have advanced the price of bread from 5 to 6 cents, and in some instances 7 cents is charged. Brown bread and the rougher grade of white bread have advanced 1 cent per pound all round. This is the result of the recent high jump the price of wheat has taken on the New York and Chicago markets, which has necessarily raised the price of flour. Notwithstanding the advances in other places, London as yet has not been af-This morning several bakers were asked concerning the prospects of an early advance. The general opinion was that if wheat and flour remained at the present price bread would have to go up. Ald. Parnell, who runs an extensive establishment, is out of town and the bakers are awaiting his return home. Mr. O. J. Bridle said the price of bread would have been up before now had it not been for two or three bakers in the union who wanted to run everything. "We had a nice union until about a month ago," he said, there will be no raise until the bakers gef together and agree upon an advance. Most of the bakers want to raise the price, but there are two or three against Hampton Day, formerly a their trade. We're selling bread now on an average of 21/2 cents per pound.

Buffalo, Aug. 26.-Yesterday was a great day for Buffalo, and a great day for the veterans. The grand parade, headed by President McKinley, was the feature of the day, and everything else was subordinate to that. By 10 o'clock, the hour announced for the parade to start, the streets on each side were packed solid, and the police had their hands full in keeping the throng from trespassing on the thoroughfares where the erans were to march. For nearly seven hours the air vibrated with martial sounds and stilling music from brass bands and fife and drum quickened the pulse and made many a spectator's breast swell with conscious pride. Fully 250,000 people lined the route of the procession and strained their eyes to get a sight of the veteran marchers, and cheered hoarse in greeting the old soldiers, of whom nearly 50,000 were in line. The most enthusiastic wheelwoman the band will play today at Kingsville. It was judiciously selected, and most "What is the feeling among bakers "Every fair day the old lady can be

Later advices from Liverpool, 1:30 p.m., showed a recession in prices there, and Chicago followed suit, September declining as rapidly as it advanced. The price at 9:50 a.m., twenty minutes after the opening, was 98½ cents. There was heavy selling of December wheat by Baldwin and Gurney, and this helped to pull down the September price. December at one time was 7 cents dis count. At 10 a.m. another rally carried September again to $1 011/6
