Londoners will have an opportunity of seeing a good, hard, well-fought game of football on Tecumseh Park next Saturday, when the Nationals of Kingston play the London Juniors for the championship of Ontario. London has easily defeated the teams that have been drawn against her up to the present, but will have a worthy foe in the Nationals. Arrangements have been made for night practices, to be held in Jubilee rink next week. Coach Reid will work the team harder than ever. The champion Ottawa City Seniors play in Hamilton on the 18th, and want to play an exhibition game in London the following Monday. If some of the veterans can be persuaded to come out arrangements may be made. Hobbs returns from his shooting trip Craig, of the Nationals, is a great kicker, and will make the London halves Coach Reid was asked to referee the Ottawa-Argonaut match at Toronto today, but owing to the telegram not being delivered in time, was unable to

McGILL FAVORS A CHANGE. At a well-attended meeting of the McGill Football Association, it was decided that the present system of football played in Canadian colleges is not a good one, and a resolution was drawn up advising the general committee to dispense with the present rules and introduce the system of football played in England. For some months there has been a growing feeling among the rolleges of the inter-collegiate series, that the present game was not a satisfactory one, especially from the spectators' point of view, and that the com-paratively small attendance which has marked the games has only been the result of this, and would be remedied by a change in the game. The reasons for the change are mainly that the scrimmage in the Canadian game is weak, and quite detrimental to good

FISTIC.

The story circulated to the effect that James J. Jeffries was "doped" during his contest with Thomas Sharkey at Coney Island on last Friday might was emphatically contradicted by the champion and his manager yesterday. "If the alleged sporting man who made this statement will come forward I will donate $1,000 to any charitable institution," said the champion. William A. Brady was equally emphatic in denouncing those who have created such rumors. "The whole thing is an absolute lie," he said. AT CHICAGO.

SEASONABLE HINTS.

Guard Your Health in Fall and Early Winter.

A change from warm to cold is always attended with more danger than from a cold to a warm temperature, hence the greater mortality from lung and throat diseases at this season of the year as compared with spring. The best protection agaist colds is good digestion. If the digestion and circulation are good, colds will be unknown. Poor digestion causes poor circulation of the blood, and when in this condition severe colds are contracted not so much in extra clothing as in on the slightest provocation. People who make a regular practice of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals are free from colds, simply because their digestion is perfect, the heart strong and regular, and whole system fortified against

It requires little argument to convince anyone that the best safeguards against colds, pneumonia and changes of temperature is a good stomach. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, taken after meals are dissolved, and, mingling with the food, cause it to be promptly digested and assimilated; they do this because they contain nothing but harmless digestive ele-ments, which digest meat, eggs and other food even when the stomach itself is weak and flaccid.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make people well and keep them well, and the best habit you can acquire is to make daily use of them at meals to keep the digestive organs strong and vigorous.

Brown Potter.

tionat the Chantant in London Next

Saturday-All Yankee Performers.

London, Nov. 13 .- Next Saturday & most remarkable American entertain-ment will be given under the modest title of "A Chantant." This is the outcome of Mrs. Brown Potter's untiring efforts for an entire month. She is going to produce a very unique show of American talent, and success is already assured. The golden sovereigns are rolling in in waves. The tickets sold at a sovereign each, and whatever is made goes toward the fund for the American hospital ship.

I remember years ago seeing Mrs. Brown Potter at the famous Tuexdo Park Club acting in the cause of charity. She had gained by her amateur EX-PUGILIST BECOMES MINISTER acting a small fortune. It was not After being graduated from the Bap- only her acting, but her power of organization also, which had made her

> She has not changed one bit since then. In this particular case the first clever point Mrs. Brown Potter made was to get hold of the Prince of Wales. It was His Royal Highness who named next Saturday as the date upon which the performance should take place. traction, she bethought herself where to find a fitting frame for her picture. Sir Arthur Sullivan and D'Oyly Carte are the principal directors of that most luxurious hotel, Claridge. Mrs. Brown Potter won them over, and they gave her one of their gorgeous reception rooms free of cost. This important concession obtained, Mrs. Brown Potter set about to look for talent. A hundred volunteered. The members of the dramatic world are nothing if not generous. But she would have none not Americans, nor who was not first rate.

"So many have been disappointed," said Mrs. Brown-Potter, "that I won't appear myself lest it should be thought that I kept someone else out to make place for myself."

Privately, I think that when the day of the "Chantant" comes round, the audience will insist on hearing its organizer herself. ONLY AMERICANS CAN BUY

TICKETS.

But further, so as to keep it thoroughly American, Mrs. Brown-Potter laid down the law that only Americans were to buy tickets. They have so bought them in tens, in twenties and in fifties. The Prince of Wales, for instance, gets his ticket from Mrs. Potter herself. Now here is what Mrs. Potter herself says:

"There will be no recitations. Our programme has been arranged with a view to brilliancy. "We have got the Belle of New York's chorus and solo, with full orchestra. The girls will appear in their private dress. Mr. De Wolf Hopper will appear in a Sousa march, and will give special songs. "Lady Hope, known to the world generally as May Yohe, will sing the famous coon song with which she captured the English public on her arrival here. She will wear the famous Hope diamond about which there has been so much written. HOSTS OF SINGERS AND ACTORS. "Mr. R. G. Knowles and Mr. Eugene Stratton will appear, also the new prima donno, Ellen Beach Yaw of Carte's company, and Mr. Frank Lincoln, in a short story. "Miss Ella Russell, one of the best American voices, now in London, is on the lists, also Miss Maud Jeffries, Miss Elliott, and lots of other beautiful women. The Kronthal people have given the bar. Tea has also been given. Mr. Paul Arthur is stage manager. "The English national anthem will be sung by the united companies, Mr. Kerker leading. The 'Star Spangled Banner' will also be similarly sung. "I have 400 applications from those who are desirous of acting or singing. Pretty girls of the stage. Edna May among others, will sell programmes and little Union Jack-Star Spangled American flags, which latter will be held up during the singing of the national anthem. These flags have been given by the Princess Hatzfeldt. FINE SHOW OF DRESSES. "But perhaps of all the features the most prominent is that it is going to be a great frock show. I have made a special request of several of the smartest ladies that they should wear light dresses so as to give brilliancy and cheerfulness to the scene. The Duchess of Marlborough, for instance, will wear white plush toilette. "I have got something, which I hope will be very pretty, coming from Worth's. My decoration will be quite unique, nothing but flowers and little satin frogs. "While beforehand assured of success, there is more than a probability that the Duke and Duchess of Connaught will attend.

"Another feature of the 'Chantant' is that Tod Sloan, the crack American lightweight jockey, will sell programmes. His Grace, the Duke of Marlborough, will mix cocktails for all who want them. "Tickets for the entertainment can be obtained from Mrs. Van Andre, No. 81 Piccadilly, or from Ashton's, No. 38 Old Bond street. Price £1."

Britain Keeps Two Warships Off the Coast of Newfoundland.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 12.-Owing to the gravity of the situation between France and Britain over South Africa the British warships Comus and Columbine are still stationed at the Bay of Islands on the French treaty shore of Newfoundland. The French have not yet all left the coast. It is probable that the warships will remain at St. Johns all winter and the cident was caused by train wreckers. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done it will do again.

Under the Direction of Mrs. Trap To Be Set by Three Generals in Luzon.

Prince of Wales Will Be the Attrac- Lawton and MacArthur to Keep Him in One . lace Until Wheaton Can Capture Him.

> Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.-In order to prevent the escape of Aguinaldo from Bayombong, Gen. Otis will send an expedition to capture Aparri, on the north coast of Luzon, and, after establishing its base at this port, the expedition will be conveyed in cascoes and light draught vessels down the River Cagayan and its tributary to Bayambong, or to whatever point Aguinaldo may have established his

This expedition will probably be under the command of Brig.-Gen. Wheaton who has occupied San Rafael and is under orders to proceed against Dagupan. Before dispatching him to Aparri, Gen. Otis will reinforce his command, so that it will be able destroy any bands of hostile natives that it may meet and have ample force to crush Aguinaldo's army when it is finally brought to bay.

WILL CO-OPERATE WITH WHEA-TON. Generals Lawton and MacArthur will so arrange their forces as to keep Aguinaldo in the north of Luzon until

Gen. Wheaton gets in position, when the three commanders will bring their forces to bear upon the point at which Aguinaldo may be located. Gen. Otis is expected to send several "tinclads" with the expedition, as they will be useful in protecting the troops during the passage down the Cagayan. It has been expected that Gen. Wheaton's expedition would make a short cut across the mountain to get to the north of Aguinaldo; but Gen. Otis has decided that the wiser plan is to send his command by transports to the north of Luzon and to have Generals Mac-Arthur and Lawton guard the south. HARD TO CATCH AGUINALDO. It has become evident to the officials that it will be extremely difficult to catch Aguinaldo. It is pointed out that with the long coast line of the island, it would be an easy matter for him to enter a small sailboat and get away, and naval officers predict that if he is captured it will be by the navy and not by the army. Three important dispatches from Gen. Otis were received at the war department today, showing the hard-ships and difficulties encountered by our troops in their advance and giving a captured insurgent dispatch showing a line of argument put forward to sustain the insurrection. The dispatches are as follows:

"Manila, Nov. 11.—Severe typhoons over Panay last two days impeded march of Gen. Hughes' troops; his column several miles north of west of Hollo. Insurgents have abandoned strong defenses in that section.

ADVANCE IS DIFFICULT. "Manila, Nov. 11.-Lawton pushing troops through on Lupadimgan and San Quentin road; but country submerged; bridges and recently constructed rafts washed out and wheel transportation cannot move. His reliance on cavalry, few infantry and naval scouts living mostly on country. Mac-Arthur commenced advance early this morning.
