TALES OF LONDON TOWN

Owing to an accident while moving some machinery into our new premises, this edition of the Advertiser is unavoidably late.

—Mr. Scott, of this city, is a guest at S. R. Gillies, Ailsa Craig.

—Easter is late this year, Good Friday being April 10 and Easter Sunday April 12.

—Mr. Bert Smith, son of Mr. H. T. Smith, of Dufferin, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

—The many friends of Mr. Archie McCallum, jun., photographer, will regret to hear of his serious illness.

—The city license commissioners will be called together in a few days to organize for the year. Mr. Robert Reid, the present chairman, is likely to be re-elected.

—Mr. Albert E. Jones, the new organist of the Methodist Church, arrived at London from England this week. Tomorrow he will take charge of the musical services at the church.

—At the last meeting of the Methodist quarterly board of the Belmont circuit a hearty and unanimous invitation was extended to the Rev. H. D. Moyer to return for the fourth year in the pastorate.

—The farmers of Middlesex are to receive a treat in practical knowledge through the Farmers' Institute meeting that is being held at the Agricultural College on Feb. 11 to 19 inclusive, according to advertisement in this issue.

—RETHIRING FROM BUSINESS.
Owing to ill-health Mr. T. G. Whiskard is retiring from business. The business is a most carefully selected and bought for cash, and will be sold without fixtures. This is a rare opportunity for a first-class business man.

—At the last meeting of the directors of Mount Pleasant Cemetery a resolution was passed thanking the executors of the late Mrs. Richard Brown for the bequest of $200, the interest of which will be used in caring for her lot in the cemetery.

—THE BOYLE MEMORIAL MEDAL.
The "At Home" held yesterday afternoon at the Victoria School was a very successful affair, and was attended by upwards of 200 people. The committee made by Bro. E. Newman, Taylor, Maker and others, with singing by Bro. Baskerville, Bro. Tripp spoke concerning the order, after which the London brethren were banqueted by Court Crumlin in royal style, after which the party left for home, having passed a most enjoyable evening.

—TEACHERS' EXECUTIVE MEETING.
The executive of the local association of teachers of East Middlesex met this morning in the council chamber at the county buildings; all were present except two members. They were busy on a programme which they are preparing for the convention that will be held soon to take place. While the details have not been completed, the president states that the convention will be a most successful one, and that the programme is finally drawn up it will be such as to attract every teacher in the district.

—CONSTRUCTION OF A WILL.
When the late Jacob Gilbert, of Elgin County, died, he left a will, the construction of which gave rise to differences of opinion. These differences were argued this morning, when the sitting of the high court was held at London, Hon. Mr. Justice Meredith presiding. A motion was made for construction of the will of Jacob Gilbert, deceased, the following counsel presenting their arguments: Mr. E. Meredith, for executors; Mr. T. G. Meredith, for Mr. Absalom Gilbert; Mr. J. W. Crothers, for Mr. Herman Crouse; Mr. C. P. Brown, for Mrs. Hannah Thompson; Mr. John Farley, for Mr. Ernest Gilbert. Judgment was reserved.

One Minute Interviews.

Mrs. H. Bapty—The Daughters of the Empire are planning to keep up the interest in the soldiers' monument fund, and an endeavor will be made to secure the co-operation of the London Old Boys' Association, a number of former Londoners having signified their desire to help in this good object.

Charles Rankin, referee of the Paris-Seventh Regiment game—London worked under many disadvantages in the game last night, and I do not think they were outclassed. I was surprised that Paris did not pile up a higher score.

Assistant Fire Chief Aiken—I believe the duties of every man on the department are to be more carefully defined than heretofore. With the advent of the warm weather, regular drill is to be commenced.

Chairman Waterman—Messrs. Nicholl, Power and McIntyre, of Kingston, who are connected with the hospital for the insane, spent a few hours at Victoria Hospital yesterday, and expressed themselves as greatly pleased with it.

Tax Collector Hayes—I am getting in about $5,000 of last year's taxes each week. There is still about $10,000 left unpaid. The sending out of treasurers' notices to those who haven't paid up, that $30,000 must be cut down quickly.

Mr. L. Leitch, superintendent of London Mutual Fire Insurance Company—The annual meeting on the 23rd will likely be bigger than the last one, as the important question of removing the head offices to Toronto will come up. Not until then will we be able to state when the change will be made. None of the shareholders have said yet that they will not go; if they wish to go their positions will be held for them.

Mr. James Dean, weigh master—The market this morning was better than for some weeks, though only marginally so. Bringing in hay on other days than Saturdays makes more room on the square, and the farmers are getting to think that it's better to bring it in during the week. This morning 22 loads were brought in, while yesterday there were 36 loads.
