ustained by a large majority. Another clause of the report which gave rise to some discussion was one relating to question of marriage. The ommittee recommended that "In order to guard against clandestine marriages, and to guard as far as possible against the evil results which cometimes follow, it would be well toconform to the prayer book rule of naving the bans published and the eremony performed in the church." It was pointed out that the Roman Catholic Church held any marriage landestine performed between its nembers by anyone other than a Catholic clergyman, and after a de-bate which consumed mearly half an hour, it was decided to amend the clause to read:

'In order to secure a proper degree f publicty, and to discourage secret marriages, etc.

The accepted clauses of the report n amended form is as follows:

Marriage. 1. In the opinion of your committee many enter into the state of holy matrimony without due consideration of the causes for which matrimony was ordained. The welfare of the church and state rests upon the stability and sanctity of the home. In order to secure a proper degree of publicity and to guard against marriafes, and as far possible against the evil results, which in many cases follow, it would be well to conform to the Prayer Book rule of having the banns published and The number of transactions was of mid-number proportions on the Toronto Stock Fathers and mothers should be urged Exchange this morning, and there was to impress upon their children the very little movement in prices: Toronto Railway, 372 at 143¼ to 113½: Mackay, 59 at 85% to 86; do, preferred, 195 at 69½; Rio, 480 at 138½ to 138%; do, bonds, bring the matter before their con-

Toronto Lads Arraigned in the Iuvenile Court Today.

The two young fellows whi were arrested in St. Thomas, charged with stealing blcycles in London, pleaded guilty to taking six wheels when they appeared before Police Magistrate Judd when they were brought up this Jndgment was reserved until this afternoon

The boys admitted taking bicycles owned by John Lochead, Cecil Hol-Austin MiKitterick, Harry Brownlee, Richard Boyly, and G. Davis. All were first-class machines, a couple of them being practically

Despite the fact that they were worth from $40 to $60 each, they had no trouble in disposing of four them to local dealers for $10 each. All of the bicycles were recovered, those belonging to Mr. Lochead and Mr. Holland having been brought back from St. Thomas. The lads are both of good families, one being a nephew of an Anglican bishop, and the other a student of Toronto University. They claimed that they were under 16 years of age, and were accordingly dealt with hind closed doors in the juvenile court

this morning. BRICKLAYERS' AND MASONS' EXCURSION TO TORONTO

The bricklayers and masons of this ity have arranged for an excursion o Toronto on Saturday, June 15. It will be good for three days, via Canathe time the alleged offence was com- dian Pacific. The committee has aris arrest was travelling from Chicago to carsionists to visit Toronto and enjoy the pleasure resorts in that city. Parks, assisting a lady friend from West London on to the train, he felt a hand in his tween Rochester and Toronto are some pocket, and turned sharply in the pas- of the amusements that can be enjoyed sage beside the smoking compartment, grasping at Francis, who fled.

The policeman was in plain clothes at the time, and Francis had no desire to engage in any first demonstration with a man who appeared to be of the amusements that can be enjoyed on. Saturday. The Bricklayers' and Masons' Union is a very strong organization in London, and no doubt to large crowd will go on the excursion Saturday.
