Since you are so sincere in your attachment for the young woman, why not give some evidence of it, then if she appears and thick. Take from stove and add, a to reciprocate, continue your attentions. If you have steady work, and are at all bitlous, is it not probable that the next five years may bring you advancement to warrant your marrying? There are surely great possibilities open to bright, young men in your line of work. If the young woman cares for you, or should grow into a special liking for you, she will doubtless be willing to wait a few years. If it is only a fear that you might not be able to finance a home that prevents you from trying to win the girl, I should bid you to banish the fear and hope for a brighter future. Opportunity may even now be knocking at your door! Write again if it helps any.
