The greatest care should be taken with Cancer children, and their training and development should commence early in life. They are exceedingly sensitive and this makes them very hard to manage, although these little ones are very obliging and gentle if properly trained.

The attraction of these children should be turned in babyhood to the contemplation of the true, the sweet and the tender. They should not be taken to funerals, nor made to spend much time with people who are ill. They should be dressed simply no matter what the social position of their parents.

The governing sign of this date is Cancer, the sign of the Crab, and the governing planet is the is Cancer, the sign of the Crab, and the governing planet is the Stenographers, bookkeepers, and office clerks who are looking for better positions and better salaries, should watch the Want Ads carefully this month, as they are under planetary favor.
