Wife-Saving Station" Offers Five Days' Trial to London Homes.

The Grand Prize Eureka Vacuum Cleaner has been a favorite with many women for the past fifteen years, but just within the past tw r three years has it really come into prominence as the largest selling vacuum cleaner in the world. In 1923 with a total of seventy differen nakes of vacuum cleaners to choos com, some priced less than half the Eureka, some having free premium given with them, such as sets of dishes, etc., and some being practical y forced on purchasers by salesmen one purchasers in every four who cought a vacuum cleaner bought in Grand Prize Eureka. In that yea done almost one-quarter million Eurekas were purchased, and, toda over one million Eurekas are in con stant use in large hotels, public buildings and homes all over Can-ada, the United States and the rest f the world.

One can easily understand the Eureka's popularity when one re members that in six different expo sitions since 1915 in America and Europe, the Eureka has been awarded the grand prize or highest award by impartial judges, as the most sim-ple, sturdily-built, and efficient vacuum cleaner made. This and the fact that the Eureka "gets the dirt." not the carpet," makes it in all ways the best buy in vacuum cleaners, especially since its price is very reasonable, and it may be purchased on small monthly payments
