EVERYONE who desires the better things of life has felt the desire for an anthology of literature, for a gallery of paintings, for a library of the great thoughts of mankind. In like measure, there is a desire for a choice selection from the music of the world, interpreted by great artists and gathered into a permanent form that can rank in beauty with one's most prized possessions.

TO SATISFY that desire, the Victor Talking Machine Company of Can-ada, Limited, has searched its great library of immortalized music—the most comprehensive in the world—library of immortalized music—the most comprehensive in the world—and from its has carefully selected a group of records of music, interpreted by great musicians. These it has gathered into an anthology of music—The Music Arts Library of Victor Records: The lover of music—will no more wish to be without the Music Arts Library than the lover of books without his Shakespeare.

size, they are so constructed the 10 and 12 inch Records will fit in them perfectly.
