four gentlemen kiss lady on cheek, three gentlemen show very good taste by kissing lady on eyes, two gentlemen kiss lady on hand. It is to be presumed these two out of a hundred are the timid, diffident kind, though it is possible that they might be of the quietly pentimental nature. One gentleman tisses lady on nose. It must be added to make the statisfician is careful to insert timid, diffident kind, though it is pos-lible that they might be of the quietly hat the statistician is careful to insert the saving clause-by mistake. There is even a record of a man kissing a lady on the edge of shawl; but, thank goodness, there is only one in a hundred, and the chances are that this man is peculiar.

Seventy-two hold lady's hand, seventeen hold it very tightly, fourteen have lumps in their throats and nine exclaim aloud: "Thank God!" Only seven out of a hundred declare themselves to be deliriously happy, and five are too full for utterance. Three out of a hundred stand on one foot when they make proposal, and two go down on one knee. while nine make a formal prelude thing like the slow music at the play, we suppose, when the villian appeals to Heaven to witness the consuming flame of his affections for the heart he plots to ruin, etc.

The behavior of the lady under the circumstances is equally entertaining and instructive. Out of a hundred cases eighty-one sink into the arms of a gentleman, sixty-eight rest their heads on gentleman's breast, and only one sinks into the arms of a chair; sever clasp their arms around the gentle man's neck; six weep tears of joy silently, and forty-four weep tears aloud —whatever that means; seventy-two do. demand... | 4.89 | 4.89 have eyes full of love and nine out of a somebody. Only four are greatly surknew that something was coming. Five sneezes. Only one of a hundred strug-gles not to be kissed, while six kiss gentleman first. If to believe the statisti-"Yes, but don't be a fool !"-New York Commercial Advertiser.

A THIEF'S CLEVER RUSE.

He Took Advantage of a Widow's Fear of Chosts.

A tradesman's widow of 35 summers decided on marrying again. She was in comfortable circumstances, but was haunted by the dread of the apparition her departed husband out that the presence of a successing might have the effect of keeping it way. All went well for three months fiter the wedding, at least so far as the ghost was concerned, but nevertheless the couple somehow fell out and determined to apply for a divorce. In the meantime the man went his own way, and his spouse remained at her abode.

A day or two ago, just as the witching hour of midnight had struck, the lady beheld, by the pale moonlight, a figure wrapped in what she believed to be a shroud enter her room. Convinced that this must be the dreaded ghost of her first hu band, she hid her head under the bedlothes and so pasesd the night, in a state of abject terror. She night is a state of abject terror. of her departed husband's ghost, and then perceived that her wardrobe was open and that the sum of 550 francs had not been tampered with and that husband No. 2 was provided with a key to the apartment, he was sent for. At first he tried to deny, but at last he onfessed that he had taktn the money, having wrapped himself up in a sheet. as he was aware of his wife's weakness in regard to ghosts. The Police Commissary cleverly seized this opportunity of reconciling the couple, and there is no nore talk of a suit for a divorce.-London Telegraph.

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocca, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flav-cored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist svery tendency to disease. Hundreds of subte maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escap emany a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortisfied with pure blood and a properly nours lisked frame.—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in packets by grocers, labelled thus: BREAKFAST-SUPPER.
