

A PLEASANT FAMILY GATHERING.
Sixty-two Being Present - Forty Years' Progress - A Good Social Time.

The several members of the family of Geo. Gott, Esq., now of Kerwood, Ont., met on Tuesday, Oct. 29th, 1885, at the residence of Joseph Brown, Esq., lot 10th of the 3rd con. of Adelaide, being most central for a pleasant reunion and family gathering. It was occasioned by the visit of their sisters, Rachel and Alice, the first from the far distant State of Nebraska, U.S., and the other from the remote North, being about 25 years since the family were all present together before. At about 10 o'clock a.m., the several branches of the family began to gather around the home of their sister, Mrs. J. Brown, and by noon a pretty good company of joyous and happy faces had succeeded in finding the appointed place, where a warm and hearty reception awaited them. The father of the family, now somewhat bowed down with the burden of years and much labor, was also present amongst them, and heartily took in the present occasion, but the mother of the family having departed this life June 7th, 1878, or some seven years ago, was greatly missed.

MR. GEORGE GOTT was born in Lincolnshire, Old England, June the 5th, 1810, and is now a little over 75 years of age, but still comparatively strong and hearty for his name of days. His wife, Elizabeth, born May 10th, 1810, came to Canada in 1845 with six small children and at once proceeded by her own industry and tentative industry to make a home for herself and family by settling down on the Back Street, South-west corner of Park's Mills near St. Thomas. After remaining there some 5 or 6 years they took up land in the selected country known as "The Haven Track" in the Township of West Williams, and located a family home on the 21st concession, where the youngest member of the family is today living in comparatively easy circumstances. The family now number nine living members, four males and five females (one boy and one girl having died young) and with the exception of two of the members, are all living in this immediate neighborhood.

THEIR NAMES are as follows: - Benjamin Gott, Arkona, Nurseryman and Fruit-grower.
Wm. Gott, Stratford, Cabinet-maker, &c.
David Gott, Stratford, Fruit-grower and Gardener.
Edward C. Gott, West Williams, Farmer and Grazier.
Alice Gott, wife of Joseph Parker, Danforth, Farmer and Grazier.
Martha Gott, wife of George Rowe, Kerwood, Shoemaker.
Rachel Gott, wife of Joel Carter, Hastings, N.B., Farmer and Grazier.
Sarah Gott, wife of Joseph Brown, Adelaide, Farmer and Grazier.
Rebecca Gott, wife of Solomon Waite, Wyoming, Farmer, &c.

These several members of the family with their children were most present and were all in prosperous and comfortable circumstances, as the direct result of their parents' enterprise in coming and bringing them to this country to provide for themselves by their own industry. As a result of this careful industry the family now hold in their possession in fee simple upwards of FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS of the real wealth of the country, or an average in clear showing of one thousand dollars in each year that they have been in the country. This we think is a fine example of the progress and thrift that can be achieved in this country and under our favorable conditions by careful and persistent attention to well directed efforts, even from the smallest beginnings. There are now living in the home of the family 48 children and 2 great grand children, making a total of 50, as follows, viz: -

BENJAMIN'S FAMILY - Clara R., Flora E., Lilla M., George A., and Louis A. GOTT.
WILLIAM'S FAMILY - Sarah J., Ida M., Amelia A., Lolla, Alvera, Margaret, Elizabeth C., and W. Russell GOTT.
DAVID'S FAMILY - Alfred A., Frederick H., Elmer L. W., A. Gertrude, and Lloyd GOTT.
EDWARD C'S FAMILY - Ada E., and Curtis E. GOTT.
ALICE'S FAMILY - Robert, Horatio, Sylvester, and William PARKER.
RACHEL'S FAMILY - Elizabeth, Emma, Clara, George, William, and Elith R. CARTER.
MARTHA'S FAMILY - Arthur, Lydia, Cecelia, Joseph, Lavanch, Percy, Deuelia, Ethel, Curtis D., and Lucia C. ROWE.
SARAH'S FAMILY - George W., Cecil, Olivia L., W. Russell BROWN.
REBECCA'S FAMILY - Gabriel, Midred M., Ida L. and Edith L. WAITE.
Beside these Martha and Rachel are grandmothers, one child each, swelling the total to fifty. Of these children 22 are male and 27 are females, and amongst those boys 9 directly bear the family name down a future time. As this permanent stock hold is likely to be maintained in the country. The most of these were present at the gathering, and other invited guests were Mr. John Brown, father of the Brown family, and Mrs. John Brown, Jr., and child, also Mr. and Mrs. G. Rowe and child, Mr. Warren, and others. In the evening the family, especially in its several members, gathered in the spacious sitting room for entertainment, for singing, and some family chat in the shape of short addresses from the several members present. Mr. G. Rowe also filled the chair as director and cheerfully called off the program, which was very interesting and instructively filled. One of the brothers in his address before the family hinted at "THE REALITY NAME AND ITS SIGNIFICANCE."

I may briefly remind you, my dear brothers and sisters, of the family name and its significance. As you all well know, it is of purely German origin, and stands in that language for the name of the Duke. Of our forefathers who originally came from Germany to England many years in the past and brought this family name with them, we know comparatively little or nothing previous to our father who is amongst us tonight. On this point, he knows but little and consequently we know but little. Of his sisters he remembers only of one named Ellen, and of only one brother named Matthew, both of whom were younger than he, and were left behind in England when he, or his father, left the old ancestral land and country to come to this. Outside of these we know of no others holding a close family relationship to us. In my earnest inquiries on this subject I have only succeeded in finding two families on this continent bearing our family name, but neither of them as far as I can ascertain are in any way further related. One of these is that of Mr. George Gink, Amherstburg, Ont., apparently a wealthy merchant or banker, and the other is that of Mr. Chas. M. Gott, a small town in New Jersey, near New York, a somewhat bankrupt and florid. In my writing to those gentlemen they were apparently pleased of the correspondence, but I could learn little from them concerning the origin or early history of the name in England.

THE REALITY NAME. In July, 1845, though very young, I well remember our father and our mother busily preparing to leave their native country with their six small children and their simple effects capable of being brought together for shipment. In the beautiful and lovely Canadian September they daily leave us on their promising shores at a point called Port Stanley on the beautiful Lake Erie, with their little ones and their simple effects. Never did I go to this day to Port Stanley but the very sight of it distinctly calls up to my mind's recollection this incident in our early history in this country. I remember the very appearance of the place as we landed on the pier and first our look on this Canadian soil as well as the appearance of the country and our early impressions. Was it not a Providence that led you to our history which we look with pride and astonishment? Are we not to-day reaping the rich harvest of our parents' enterprise in coming to this country? And now in the language of a good old book, "The little one has become (almost) a thousand," and only see how the feeble plant has outgrown its strong and sturdy parent. The family is now holding a large position of the fertile and productive soil of this country in its own right as a result of patient efforts in humble dependence upon Divine Providence. That one family with six small children has now spread out to ten families with an aggregate of fifty children, and some of them not so very small either, and that in the comparatively short time of only 40 years. Thus a standing incentive, deep and heartfelt gratitude to that Divine Providence who is constantly watching over his dependent creatures for their present and future good.

FAMILY RELIGION. It further strikes me with great force and power to witness the deep religious convictions that seem to pervade our minds. Not one of our numbers, as far as we know, can be traced to "the dishonoured name of 'Infidel,'" but on the contrary, all with heart and will embracing as a portion of their actions that pure form of our Christianity which is revealed to us in the Holy Scriptures. This Christianity is able to make us wise unto everlasting salvation and good and honored citizens of our adopted country and our times. This religion is better to us than riches, and it is better than houses and lands, and will fit us for that realm of happiness revealed to us where nothing sorrowful or left and faded is more. This, my dear friends, above all other considerations, should be the one most deep and lasting for thankfulness to the Great Father of all our mercies for His inestimable GIFT. And let us constantly strive in our humble endeavor to let our lights shine before men that they shall take knowledge of us that we have been so taught and that we love the dear children that have been mercifully given to us to learn and love and will walk in them. They will also gladly testify of us to the generations yet to come that we, their parents and teachers in the past, loved and obeyed those same unyielding truths and principles of moral and religious conduct that they themselves have received. Perhaps you will call this mere speculation, but I am sure you will readily and gladly exclaim one day looking on these matters by way of remembrance, and when you reach your distant home, some in the far and distant West and some in the far East, you will say, "I will call these things to mind as a remembrance, and I will tell of them to my children and to my grandchildren, and I will tell of them to the nations prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

A HEARTY NOTE OF THANKS. Being proposed and carried to their sister Sarah and her husband, J. Brown, for their untiring efforts for our enjoyment and entertainment, and also for their kind and efficient services, this part of the proceedings was brought to a close. On the following morning the senior members of the family proceeded to Stratford and invaded the art studio of S. H. Ray, photographic artist, and had a group for their "reunion," which, when finished in Mr. Ray's usual style, will be a precious and lasting memento of this visit and a lasting relic to the home of the several members. Thus passed off a very pleasant family gathering that will be held long in fond remembrance.
