Address and Presentation.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Glass, 6th con., S.E.R. on Friday, Sept. 29th, when about forty of their friends and neighbors gathered to say farewell prior to their leaving for Sask.

The evening was a pleasant one and will not soon be forgotten by Mr. and Mrs. Glass. It was a complete surprise and the presentation of two handsome mahogany chairs, by the friends, will be prized for many years in memory of the dear old neighborhood. During the evening a delicious lunch was served by the ladies and everyone left well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

The address was read by Cameron Anderson.
DEAR MR. AND MRS. GLASS:
Knowing of your intended departure for your future home in the West, we, the friends and neighbors, deem it a fitting opportunity to give expression to our appreciation of a kind friend and worthy neighbor.

We regret the loss of an excellent neighbor who was always ready and willing to give a helping hand to all requiring assistance. This being the old home-stead and the place where you have made your first start in life, made associations even dearer but change is our portion here and prospects in the West are very alluring. Your cheerfulness and good will has cemented a friendship here that we trust time and distance will not efface.

We ask you to accept these chairs as a slight token of our love and esteem with the wishes and prayers that your future life will be surrounded with God's presence and His crowning joy of friendship.

We sincerely hope that in your new home you will enjoy both comfort and prosperity and when the family circle draws around the hearth, in memory, may you associate with friends and neighbors on the line.

Signed on behalf of the friends and neighbors
CAMERON ANDERSON

CONSTIPATED CHILDREN.

Constipation in children is the surest sign of danger—the most convincing signal that baby is going to be ill. Constipation leads to and actually causes more suffering in little ones than any other trouble. To keep baby well his little stomach must be kept sweet and his bowels regular—Baby's Own Tablets will do that—they will do it safely, surely and without pain or griping. Concerning them Mrs. S. O. Braaten, Bergland, Ont., says:—"My baby was bothered almost continually with his stomach and bowels and was greatly constipated. Baby's Own Tablets quickly relieved him and I would not now use any other medicine." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Minielly—McLean.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McLean, con. 11, Brooke west, on Wednesday, Sept. 27th, at six o'clock, when their daughter Lottie Mae became the bride of Mr. Donald L. Minielly, a popular and prosperous young farmer of South Plympton. The bride looked charming and stately in a gown of ivory habutai silk, trimmed with silk allover lace and silk insertion with such an orange blossoms, and was led to the waiting bridegroom by her father. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. N. A. Campbell, pastor of St. Andrew's, was preceded by the singing of a beautiful marriage hymn by Mrs. A. McDonald accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Geo. Clark, sisters of the bride. The young couple stood under an arch of evergreen tastefully brightened with wedding bells, pink and white roses and silver horseshoes and were supported by Mr. John Dell and the bride's sister Miss Lena McLean, who was becomingly gowned in silk mull with sash and lace. The bride's travelling costume was king's blue over white silk lace waist and white hat with plume. Many beautiful presents marked the esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a tastily served and beautiful wedding dinner, after which the bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip and will be at home in South Plympton after the middle of October. The best wishes of her host of friends, of St. Andrew's, and the Tenth line follow Mrs. Minielly to her new home.

NAPIER.

Mrs. H. Lowe visited friends in Strathroy last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Watson purpose moving to Strathroy in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Mackie moved to their new home in Strathroy last week.

The nut harvest this year is great, and the boys and girls with bags and baskets are busy gathering the precious fruit of the forest trees.

Mr. M. McIntyre reached home Saturday evening from Saskatchewan where he spent the past five weeks. The blacksmith shop which until now had not been closed in twenty-eight years is opened the forge blazes cheerily as before, and the anvil is heard again in our village.

Rev. C. Mills, who has resigned the incumbency of the parish of Alvinston and Napier, preached his farewell sermon in St. Mary's Anglican church, Napier, Sept. 24th, and spent the past week visiting here prior to his departure to Clinton. There was no service in St. Mary's church last Sabbath, but we hope arrangements will be made to have regular service as before.

BROOKE.

Minutes of Brooke Council unavoidably crowded out of this issue.

Owing to the wet weather on Sunday last, the Harvest services in St. James Church, Brooke, will be continued on Sunday next.

Rev. D. Allan, of Sarnia, will (D.V.) preach in the schoolhouse of S.S. No. 11, Brooke, on Sunday, Oct. 8th. Morning service at 10.30, evening service at 7.30. Come one; come all.

Owing to the disagreeable weather on Sunday it is to be regretted that the evening service at Chalmers' Presbyterian Church had to be postponed until later. However the special evangelistic services will begin next Sunday evening when the pastor will speak. Beginning with Monday evening Rev. Dr. J. Fraser Smith, of Comber, will take charge. He is a man of power and influence, being Moderator of the Synod of Hamilton and London at the present time. Special music will be rendered throughout the services and the specially provided hymnal will be used. These meetings all begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Come and bring your friends and enjoy an hour of splendid music and addresses.

INWOOD.

Mrs. (Dr.) Taylor spent a few days last week in Glencoe.

Miss Maude Thompson, of Alvinston, visited her grandfather, Peter Dennis, over Sunday.

Mr. J. D. Brown, of Watford, called on friends here on Monday on his return from visiting his sister, Mrs. J. Miller, in Dresden.

PLYMPTON.

Rev. J. B. Kennedy, Toronto, will preach in Calvary Church on Sunday at 3 p.m. Mr. Kennedy is organizer for the Temperance Moral Reform Association.
