THE NEW YORKER.

THE Publishers of THE NEW YORKER, encouraged by the generous and steadily increasing patronage which has hitherto rewarded their exertions, propose to issue, from the commencement of their third Volume on the 26th of March ensuing, a new Double Quarto Edition of their journal, not instead of but in addition to that now published. Advertisements, except possibly a few of a strictly literary character, will be entirely excluded; and, in addition to all the matter presented in the folio New-Yorker, the Quarto will contain a page of popular music, &c. &c. and be accompanied by a handsome Title page and comprehensive Index at the close of the Volume.

The general features of the New-Yorker will remain essentially as they have heretofore been. Its 1. General Literature.—Original Treatises, Essays, Reviews, Poems, &c. with corresponding Selections from the Quarterly, Monthly, and all the better class of periodicals, Foreign and American, with choice extracts from new works of substantial excellence. The Editor acknowledges with pride and gratitude his obligation to his regular contributors, and among them are some whose names have shed lustre on the cause of American literature. He takes pleasure in recalling the fact that, since the establishment of the New-Yorker, no one other journal has afforded specimens in equal extent and variety of the productions of all eminent American writers of whatever section or class—of agriculture, which he hopes may still preserve; while his selections from the best foreign works have been exceeded in quantity at least—by those of but three or four among the myriad of his Atlantic periodicals.

11. National Politics.—It has been the aim of the Editor to present a full and fair exhibit of the aspects, movements and struggles of parties, in our country, including the meetings of Conventions, nomination of Candidates for state and national Offices, and all other significant manifestations of political feeling, with the general results of elections, as far as ascertained, and the official canons in each instance, as soon as it shall have reached us. This course is believed to be in many respects original with this journal; and it is considered that we have just cause of felicitation in the fact that, pursued as it has been two years of unremitting political warfare, the fairness and general accuracy of our statements and returns have very rarely, if ever, been questioned. The Editor reserves to himself the right of remarking, as circumstances may seem to require, and justice to dictate, on the less exciting political topics of the day, as on all others, with candour, defence and moderation; but he will strive to be not less successfully than hitherto—to exclude from the columns of the New-Yorker every observation, reflection, or even argument, which may wantonly do violence to the sincere convictions of any well informed reader, of whatever principle or party.

111. General Intelligence. In this department we can only promise the most unwearied industry and patience in the collection, investigation, and arrangement of the news, Foreign and Domestic, which may be gathered from the weekly reception of four hundred journals, including our choice European periodicals, and which may be afforded us by the attention of our friends abroad, among whom are stated correspondents at Paris and Mexico. Although the favours of these last will generally wear literary rather than political aspects, we are yet justified in our confidence that no important intelligence which their position will enable them to transmit us more succinctly or speedily than would otherwise reach us, will in any case be withheld.

Literary notices, Statistics, Brief Notices of works of Art, Amusements, the Drama, &c. &c. will from time to time be given. As a general rule, however, it will be the aim of the Editor to embody such articles, whether original or selected, in the columns of the New-Yorker, in order to combine instruction with entertainment.

CONDITION.
The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and allowed to its patrons in the city and country at rates, not less than per annum, payable in advance. Any person or persons sending us $2 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for immediate perusal and the Quarto for binding will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance.

H. GREELY & Co. will continue to be published at Two Dollars per annum in advance, to which Fifty cents will be added if not paid within six months. It will not however, be forwarded on credit to new subscribers of whose solvency we have no satisfactory assurance.

W. H. KNOWLES.
Respectfully informs his Friends and the Public generally, that he has opened a STORE at No. 10 MARKET WHARF lately occupied by Mr. Charles Gilliland, where he intends to keep constantly on hand a complete assortment of GROCERIES and PROVISIONS, together with a general selection of Choice Liquors. All of which he will sell at the lowest possible price for CASH only.

St. Andrews, 26th May, 1835.

PROSPECTUS.
THE undersigned Polish National Committee in the United States, under the title of "The Poles in the United States of America," to be prefaced by a short statement of the History of the late Polish Revolution, and to be accompanied with authentic vouchers connected with the residence of the Poles in this country. Form in 8vo. Subscription price $1 payable on delivery only.

The Committee being sensible of the advantages offered to the Poles by a settlement in this favoured land, the proceeds of the work, after defraying expenses of publication, will be applied in aid of the colony on the Rock River, state of Illinois.

THE ALBION

PROSPECTUS OF THE FOURTH VOLUME
A JOURNAL OF THE NEWS, POLITICS, AND LITERATURE OF EUROPE.

The fourth volume of the New Series of THE ALBION commenced on the first Saturday of the present year, 1836.

This Journal, which embodies the News, Politics and Literature of Europe, more particularly of Great Britain, has been established nearly fourteen years, and has obtained a reputation and circulation far surpassing the most sanguine expectations of its founders. This flattering encouragement has enabled the Proprietor, on three separate occasions, to improve, enlarge, and embellish the work, and to throw into its pages such an increased quantity of political, literary, and scientific matter, as to render it, in the estimation of its friends, one of the most efficient weekly journals in the English language.

Notices and copies extracts from all the new publications of value, issuing from the British Press—the Debates in both Houses of Parliament, with the most remarkable Speeches at length—and the general intelligence of the British Empire, the Contents of Europe, and other parts of the globe. In its lighter portions will be found the most amusing and agreeable Tales of the British Periodicals, which are remarkable for their lively and sparkling talent, selected with a diligence and care that has drawn forth the most unqualified approbation. Any thing that tends in the remotest degree to shock feeling, delicacy, or to offend national affection, is carefully excluded, by which course the paper has become an inmate of the most respectable and intellectual families, and may be found in the Drawing Rooms and on the tables of the most literary persons in the North American Continent.

Poetry, History, Biography, Music, and the Dramatic, receive distinct and proper attention, while Geographical and Geographical Discoveries, Voyages, and Travels, &c. &c. are faithfully recorded. The Wit and Anecdotes of the great European World—the London and Parisian Fashions, and a weekly summary of the Miscellaneous intelligence of the day complete the miscellany.

Each yearly volume contains about five and twenty pieces of new and fashionable English, French, Spanish, and Italian Music, together with frequent Maps, Plans, Sketches, and Diagrams, illustrative of subjects treated of in the general scope of the work. At the end of each volume, a handsome Title Page and a copious and well arranged Index, is presented to each number.

The ALBION is published every Saturday morning in the Quarto form, on a large imperial sheet of waxed paper, printed with beautiful type, at Six Dollars Per Annum, payable in advance. Office, 77 Cedar Street near Broadway, New-York. Agents for the ALBION, New Brunswick, are Messrs H. Parker, Saint John; F. E. Belzoni, Fredericton; George Kerr, Miramichi, &c. &c. Peter Stuk, Jr. St. Stephen; Andrews; Mr. Bonelli, Sagtown.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SUBSCRIBER.

The EUROPEAN has commenced with the most flattering prospects, and a number of names have been received on the subscription list before the issuing of the first number.

The objects of the paper are to keep up a more strict term of intimacy between this country and Europe than at present exists; not merely by publishing foreign intelligence, but by defending foreigners from insults, in which we have been occasionally subjected through the liberality of a portion of the press, and by fair advocating our claims to the native American, who, if he discerns all produce in the examination, will acknowledge them.

As Ireland has been the most slandered nation, so shall our columns be more devoted to its support than to any other. In the European Irishmen will at all events, have one uncompromising friend, whose voice shall never be suppressed while the tongue of slander or the hand of oppression, is raised against them or their glorious country.

It shall be one of our constant endeavors to conciliate the friendship of the native American and if we do this in a straight forward and domestic, newspaper style, that, we shall grow tired of a parliamentary debate, or a discussion on the merits of the different candidates at election times, he can turn to another page, and refresh himself with a romance, a sonnet, a theatrical critique, or a literary notice.

We publish the paper at the almost nominal price of one dollar and a year, in order to give a more general circulation than it might otherwise command; but we can assure subscribers, that, if a devotion to their interests can be of any avail, we will be found behind our contemporaries in nothing but the price alone.

Orders for the paper, addressed to the editor through the Post Office, will be punctually attended to. All interesting communications connected with foreign affairs will be thankfully received. No subscriber taken, living out of the city, that does not pay in advance.

OR, THE SPORTING AND DRAMATIC COMPANION. INTERSPERSED WITH A MULTITUDE OF ENGRAVINGS, INCLUDING

Portraits of Celebrated Winning Horses, Philosophical and Natural Phenomena, Legends, &c.

It is now six months since this publication was commenced in Philadelphia—and although the publishers have used no extraneous means to circulate a knowledge of its merits, yet such is the satisfaction manifested by that portion of the Public who have been made acquainted with its character and contents, that its list of patrons continues constantly and rapidly to increase. This paper is now distributed regularly every week over a wide portion of the Union, and the most satisfactory assurances are received that it will eventually become one of the most popular among the numerous excellent periodicals which issue from the American press. No exertions will be spared to establish its permanent reputation more extensively, and if the liberal sanction of those for whom it is especially designed shall warrant its future improvement—both as regards typographical measures and embellishment—it will be uniformly advanced.

The different PLAYS AND FARCE, that will appear on the course of the year, of themselves will be worth more than FOUR times the amount of subscription. The following is a list of those which have already appeared—
