

leave of my illustrious subject, "kissing hands" in imagination, with profound respect. If I back out of the presence, it is not in unrepublican abasement, but because I am loath to turn my eyes away from the kindly and now familiar face of the good woman, and the good Queen—VICTORIA.

THE END.