

The Mandarin to the officers.—It is an astonishing thing! In this religion they have neither anger nor hatred against any person; it is extraordinary. [To Father Khoan.] Will the Priest Duvot be able still to go to heaven?—Priest. 'He still may, provided he changes his heart and does penance.' Mandarin.—'I believe that he will not be able to enter there for when you shall see him reach the door, you will instantly push him down with all your might.' Priest.—'No, we will not repulse him in that way, and though we wished to do so, we could not.' Mandarin.—'How is that?' Priest.—'I will shew you. There is a great Mandarin who used to sit on the same mat with you. All at once he is found fault with by the king to whom he is accused, and convicted of infidelity; the king instantly takes from him his office, and sends him away to serve as a common soldier; but the criminal soon repents, and endeavors by good conduct to merit his pardon. After several well fought actions, on account of which the king restores him to favor, and reinstates him in his former dignities he comes to sit down on the same mat with you, great mandarin: would you still bear anger towards him? Mandarin.—'Enough enough; you have convinced me; you are not an ordinary man.'

After this dialogue, the judge sent the prisoner back to his dungeon. A report on the conduct and determination of the confessors was sent to the king, who answered that their execution should be deferred no longer, since there was no hope of their conversion. But when this order arrived at Tong King, there was a vacation in the courts, and the last combat of the three martyrs had to be deferred. At my leaving the kingdom of Annam, they were still in prison; but no one doubts that, at this moment, they are in heaven.

All my brethren in the ministry were well when I left them to come to Macao: they pass a life of continual tribulation: they have not even, as a present consolation, the prospect of an approaching peace. Redouble, then, your pious prayers for our Christians, and particularly for me, who am the most respectful and affectionate of your colleagues. RITORO,
Bishop elect of Acanthus.

[COMMUNICATED.]
CHIPPAWA, Feb. 25, 1842.

Very Rev. Sir—I take the opportunity of acquainting you that the Rev. Dr. Leo, of St. Catharines, favored the Protestant inhabitants of Chippewa with a visit, on Saturday the 20th inst. A meeting was held in the evening, in the Methodist church, when the Rev. Doctor gave an able and luminous moral sermon. He exposed several errors on the subject of the Catholic religion, with great power of reasoning and felicity of illustration, all tending to show the vast importance of a thorough knowledge of the Catholic religion, with a view to the promotion and conservation of the spiritual interests of the community.

Although notice of the intention of holding a meeting was rather short, and rather a new thing in this part of the country, for a Catholic priest to preach to a large congregation of different denominations, yet, a respectable audience was present, at least 150 Protestants, who went away both highly delighted and instructed, by the argumentative and eloquent address of the Reverend Doctor.

So the Toby Fillpot of Exeter is, as the Toronto Church Editor says, the most learned of the English clergy, (Mimo Judice) and not a pretending, but a real successor to the Apostles. Has he proved him such, or those of his kidney, by his simple assertion? Let him refute first if he can, to the satisfaction of the intelligent public, the articles in our paper, demonstrating the ordination of his parliament Bishops as invalid as those of the ministers in the most whimsically dissentient sects, whom he so jeers at in his tract patch journal.

But the Editor, we suppose, is a personal friend to the Fillpot, to whom we have been told he was sent on a particular mission by John Toronto.

"Metanoia," who appears in last Monday's Gazette, will have his eyes opened on the doctrine of Purgatory, that he knows so little about, should he look out for our paper of next week.

We perceive by the Editor's gathering of ugly fictions, that the animals's muzzle is still in the mud. Trahit sua quemque voluptas.

The individual who sent us "The Banner of the Cross," of the 5th instant, will find the subject he alludes to taken notice of in our paper of the 12th and 19th January last.

The Provincial Parliament is further prorogued to the 2d day of April, but not then to meet for the despatch of business, so that there will be no session until summer.—News.

The Government has appointed Dr. Thomas Rolph Emigrant Agent in the United Kingdom, on behalf of the Government of Canada. The Hon. H. H. Killaly, D. Daly, and S. B. Harrison, are appointed a Board of Directors for the management of the Welland Canal; George Desbarats, Esq. an Inspector of the Provincial Penitentiary in place of C. W. Grant, Esq. resigned; and Samuel P. Jarvis and John S. Gwynne, Esqrs., Directors of the Grand River Navigation Com'y.

THE FAMILY NEWSPAPER,
THE PHILADELPHIA
SATURDAY COURIER,
WITH THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE WORLD.

The publishers of this old established and universally popular Family Journal, would deem it supererogatory to say a word of commendation of its past or present excellence and usefulness. Its unrivalled and increasing circulation, (over 35,000,) is its best recommendation. For the future, however, a determination to be first in the van of the American Newspaper Weekly Press, will call for increased expenditures and renewed attractions for the present year 1842, not the least of which will be an improvement in the quality of the paper and an addition of popular contributors, embracing, we fully believe, the best list to any similar Journal in the world.

The Courier is independent in its character, fearlessly pursuing a straight forward course, and supporting the best interests of the public. IT IS STRICTLY NEUTRAL IN POLITICS AND RELIGION. It will maintain a high tone of morals, and not an article will appear in its pages which should not find a place at every fireside. It has more than double the number of constant readers, to that of any other paper published in the country, embracing the best families of our Republic.

Every one should be proud to patronise the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, as by its unbroken series of original AMERICAN TALES, by such native writers as Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz, Mrs. St. Leon Loud, "The Lady of Maryland," Professor Ingraham, T. S. Arthur, Esq., Miss Sedgwick, Miss Leslie, and many others, it has justly earned the title of the AMERICAN FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

FOREIGN LITERATURE AND NEWS.

Determined to spare no expense in making the SATURDAY COURIER a perfect model of a Universal Family Newspaper, of equal interest to all classes and persons of every nation; we have made arrangements to receive all the Magazines and papers of interest, published in England and on the Continent, the news and gems of which are immediately transferred to its columns thus giving to emigrants as well as others, a correct and connected account of what ever occurs of interest either at home or abroad

The Markets.

Particular care is taken to procure the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Provisions, Produce &c., the state of Stocks, Banks, Money and Lands, and our extensive arrangements will hereafter render our PRICES CURRENT of inestimable interest to the traveller, the farmer and all business classes whatsoever.

The general character of the COURIER is well known. Its columns contain a great variety of TALES, NARRATIVES, ESSAYS, AND BIOGRAPHIES, and articles in Literature, Science, the Arts, Mechanics, Agriculture, Education, Music, News, Health, Amusement, and in fact, in every department usually discussed in a Universal Family Newspaper, from such writers as Mrs. C. Lee Hentz, Mrs. S. C. Hall, Charles Dickens, (Boz,) Professor Dunglison, Professor Ingraham, M. M. Michael, T. S. Arthur, Miss Ellen S. Rand, J. Shoridan Knowles, George P. Morris, Mrs. M.
