ny her brother, Mr. Wm. Cary, was attired in white crepon with a veil and wreath of crange bl ssoms. The pridesmaids were Miss L. B. Cary sister of the bride, and Miss St. Clair Vidal, who both wore white. Mr S G. Cary acted as best man, and the Rev. F. W. Johnston perf rm d the e-remony which was fully cloral, the hymn, "The Voice that Breathed Ger Eden," being sung as the bridal party proceeded to the Altar, and "How Wel e me was the call," at the c n-clusion of the service. A wedding march was played by Mrs. Vidal. When the party again entered the co veyances they dr ve to the relide c of the bride's Prother and sist a at

DIOCESE OF COLUMBIA B.C.

A PRETTY WEDDING IN THE FAR WEST.

The marriage at Esquimall, B. C. of Lieutenant the ilon. Vic.or A. Stan-Ly, R. N., second s n of Lord Delby, to Miss Am F. Bickerton, Pooley, on November 25, farnished a page in the history of that t wn it was clibra of at St. Paul's church and was a brilliant affair.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attir d in an exquisite white satin dress, the bodice being tranned with act rdion planted chiffen and Brussels lace, the gift of her aunt,

The six bridesmaids were Migs Profey, Miss Violet Peolity, the bride's sist ra, Miss Maud Dunsmulr, Miss Polly Loewen, Miss Blanche Foster, and Miss Olive Bryden. Their dresses were of white satin, the bodices of white according plaited chiffen have to, gold zonave Jacket. They were large white felt hats trimmed with ostrich feathers, and white roses, and carried bouquets of pink chrysanthemums, which, with enamel pearl watches were the gift of the bride grom. Atto ding the bridgroom as b's man was Leut. W. O. Bo thby,

After leaving the church the guests attended a reception in honor of Hon.

VICTORIA, B. C.

Blackwood, where a sumptous spread was prepared for the reception of 'pwards of sixty guests in the large dining room, which was prettiy dicorated with pretty mott es for the occasion. After ample justice had been done and the usual toasts gone through, dancing commenced and w.s. carried on vigorously untilt daylign when the guests departed with many good wishes for the bride and mid :groom. The presents were both u-eful and pratty.

Rev. Mr. Moore, of St. Alban's. Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, is giving a course of sermors, on the Sunday evenings in Advent, on "The Second Coming of Christ."

Mrs. Fraser. The full court tian of marvellously beautiful silver brocade was carried by two pretty little girls. Miss Kathleen Dunsmuir and Miss Inez Purvis, who were quaintly dre's d in white satin frocks with large white velvet hats trunmed with ostrich fea hers: they wore, too, gold chain bracelets, the gift of the groom. The magnificent Brussels lace veil worn by the bride was lent by the Counters of Derby for the occasi n. and had been her own wedding ved. The bride's bouquet of carnations and white roses was the gift of the groom, and her only ornaments were a diam nd heart brooch, a gift of the Counters of Derby, and a diamond and sapphire bracelet given by Lord Stanley.

Victo and Mrs. Stanley, at Fernhill. the residence of Hon. Mr. Polley, the bride's father. Here the most hospit. able preparations had been made for the occasion. Mrs. Pooley and Hon. C. E. Pocley welcomed the guests as they entered the house, and in the drawing room Hon, Victor and Mrs. Stanley received the hearty congratulations of their friends. Of course a sight of the wedding presents were given; they filled a large room en the second storey. The diamonds were especially admired. more parti plarly a wonderful tiara of the sparkling gems, the present of the Earl and Countess of Derby, and a very beautiful spray which lay close beside on the same table.