

II. The Mistake of Covetousness. vs. 16-19

What parable did Jesus then speak?
 In what was this man rich?
 Who gave this increase?
 What troubled him?
 What use should he have made of his goods?
 What did he determine to do?
 What would he say to his soul?
 What was sinful in this?

III. The Doom of Covetousness. vs. 20, 21

What did God call this man?
 In what respect was he foolish?
 What doom did God pronounce upon him?
 Of what use would his riches then be?
 Ps. 49: 17.
 Who is like this foolish rich man?
 Where should we lay up treasure? Mat. 6: 19-21.
 How may we be rich toward God?
 What should be our first object of desire? Matt. 6: 33.
 When should we attend to it? Eccles. 12: 1.

What Have I Learned?

1. That greediness of gain is a sin; we should beware of it.
2. That greediness leads to worse sins; it makes us forget God.
3. That happiness in this life and the next does not depend on the amount of money a man has.
4. That we should live not for this world alone, but for the world to come.

June 22.—Luke 12: 22-34.

Trust in Our Heavenly Father.

Memory vs. 27, 28.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Luke 12: 34.

Catechism Q. 82.

Introductory.

What was the subject of the last lesson?
 What is the connection between the last lesson and this?

Title of this lesson? Golden Text?

Lesson Plan? Time? Place? Memory verses? Catechism?

I. Trust for Food. vs. 22-26.

What did Jesus say to his disciples?
 What is more important than food and raiment?
 How is trust for food taught by the ravens?
 Why are our cares useless and needless?
 What is further urged as a reason for trusting to God?
 What does our Lord infer from this? vs. 26.

II. Trust for Raiment. vs. 27-30.

How do the lilies teach trust for raiment?
 Upon whom should we cast all our care?
 What weakness of faith is here referred to?
 What questions ought we never to worry over?
 Who do worry over these things.
 Why ought not we?

III. Trust for Heaven. vs. 31-34.

What are we to seek first of all?
 What is meant by seeking the kingdom of God?
 What is promised as the result of his seeking?
 What counsel and encouragement are given in v. 32?
 What is meant by this?
 What command does Christ here give his disciples? v. 33.
 Explain the words.
 What reason does he give for this command?

What benefits do believers receive from Christ at their death?

At their resurrection?

What Have I Learned?

1. That God is a kind and loving Father.
2. That his children may trust his care.
3. That we ought not to fret and worry over the future.
4. That we should make religion our first and chief concern.
5. That God will give to all who trust in him every needful thing in this life, and a blessed inheritance in heaven.