

At time of writing, Mr. Dseronian did not expect to be able to sail for Bataum, Russia, before the 3rd of February, from whence he will start for his particular field of labor. We wish him God-speed in his noble, Christ-like purpose, and we know he carries with him the warmest sympathies of his many Canadian friends.

Rev. H. D. Leitch gave us a brief call about two weeks ago, and favored us with an after-dinner speech. He expressed his gratification at the way things are being done in College since his day, and was pleased to be with us. (That's what they all say—all the Grads.)

Mr. Leitch is stationed at St. Elmo, Ont., and is prospering in his charge. The year closed in a very satisfactory manner, and with bright prospects for the future. The congregation raised their pastor's salary $100 during the year, besides increasing their contributions to other schemes.

It will be remembered that we noted last month that Rev. D. L. Dewar, of Ailsa Craig, was thought to be recovering from his prolonged illness. The unexpected news of his death will give a painful shock to his acquaintances and friends. On his return from Pueblo, Col., where he was thought to be steadily regaining strength, he gradually sank, and passed away on February 13th. A widow and two small children are left behind to mourn their severe loss.

The congregation of Mt. Pleasant, New Westminster, B.C., is reviving under the strong management of Rev. M. H. MacIntosh, B.A., who was inducted into that charge recently. This field had been without a settled pastor for a considerable time, so that they again appreciate the benefits of a settled pastorate. Mr. MacIntosh is becoming increasingly popular in his charge, and the prospects are bright for both pastor and flock. He succeeds Rev. J. S. Gordon, B.A., who found it necessary, on account of ill-health, to resign, much to the disappointment of his people.

We are pleased to hear that Rev. J. C. Stewart's congregation at Kamloops is still growing in financial strength.
