

Men Worth Knowing; or, Heroes of Christian Chivalry,

BY THE EDITOR.

ENTRANCE TO CATACOMB.

Will give an account of some of the most noteworthy and often little known of the Great Men of God* he past : St. Francis and the Franciscans, William the Silent, Sir Francis Drake, Admiral Coligny, Bernard Palissey, George Fox and the Quakers, and six others. The substance of many books will be condensed into twelve short articles of special importance to young people.

Nathaniel Pidgeon, His Diary, is a story of especial interest. Of this the London Watchman says:—"It palpitates with genuine old Methodist experience and feeling. We have been unable to read it except with moistened eyes and deeply moved heart. It brings all the love and glow and gladness of primitive Methodism most vividly to our conscience."

Dr. Ryerson's valuable Essays on Canadian Methodism

will shortly be brought to a close. They increase in interest as they come nearer to our own times. Many other articles of great interest and importance, by leading writers of our Church will also appear. The Departments of the Higher Christian Life, Prayer Meeting Thoughts, Current Topics, Religious Intelligence and Book Notices, will also be vigorously maintained. Price $2 a year; $1 for Six Months.

SPECIAL OFFER.

Each subscriber to the METHODIST MAGAZINE, old or new, who will send 30 Cents in addition to his subscription, will receive, post free, an elegant cloth-bound copy of "MATTHEW MELLOWDEW, a Story with more heroes than one," by the Rev. J. JACKSON WRAY. A volume of 376 pages, 12mo. Regular price $1.20. Illustrated. This is a book for every household—a story of absorbing interest, throbbing with the glow and gladness of practical religion, sparkling with wit and humour, and one that will be read with profit and delight by young and old. The author was for many years a prominent member of the English Wesleyan Conference.

Magazine and Premium.....	$2.30; full price, $3.20.
“ Guardian.....	3.50; “ 4.00.
N.B.—Magazine, Guardian, & both Premiums	4.10; “ 6.40.
“ and Scribner's.....	5.00; “ 6.00.*
“ and Harper's.....	5.00; “ 6.00.
Address, WILLIAM BRIGGS, 78 and 80 King Street East, Toronto, or, { C. W. COATES, 2 Bleury Street, Montreal, P. Q.
S. F. HUESTIS, Methodist Book-Room, Halifax, N. S.

* For $7 will be sent the METHODIST MAGAZINE and twenty-one numbers of Scribner's, beginning with February, 1880, giving the whole of Schuyler's "Peter the Great" and Principal Grants, "Dominion of Canada"—full price, $9.