

Correspondence.
Minutes of Assembly.

Editor PRESBYTERIAN REVIEW.

Sir,—Can you tell us what has become of the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1891? It is reported that some important matters were sent down by that Assembly for the consideration of Presbyteries. September meetings of Presbyteries have gone by and even the ministers have not yet received the usual advance copy. The church is yet in the dark so far as official information regarding what was done at the Assembly is concerned.

If you cannot tell us where the minutes are, can any of your neighbors tell?
Yours, etc.,

PAUL

SHOPPING BY MAIL.

One element of this store's greatness is its thousands of mail order customers, extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Toronto shoppers are not supposed to know anything about them, but the business they send runs well up to the million dollar mark every year. Think of the care and system, the merchandise and satisfaction that means! Absolutely more money coming to us by mail than many large stores take in from every source. No wonder the store grows! No wonder country merchants dislike our way of doing business! We are here to render "the greatest good to the greatest number," which takes account of qualities and prices, values and service. We believe that a dollar will go farthest here no matter what you want to buy. These items are intended to emphasize that statement. Put us to the test:
