SMOKING AND DRINKING IN THE ARMY.

Col. H. B. Carrington, 18th U. S. Infantry, writing to the Cincinnati Christian Herald, says:—

"If I could relive my past twenty-five years, I should testify very differently as to some things which are generally excused in the army and in general life. Perhaps you know that, for one, I have seldom been seen without a cigar in my mouth; and that the use of tobacco, lager beer, and other stimulants is generally presumed to belong to the army, as a kind of legitimate usage. Having for two months left off cigars, which I had used to excess, as intimated, for nearly 25 years, and having given up all alcoholic prescriptions for constitutional lung difficulties, I find mind, body and spirits more healthy than ever. If I could have one minute with all my friends in New England, Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, who have seen me smoke, it would be occupied in saying one single sentence: 'Do not smoke or drink!' Popular opinion would sneer at me! It is, nevertheless, a sound philosophy. For example: At this post there is but one man of my regiment in the guard house, and he is in for intemperance. Not a captain of my regiment at this post either drinks or smokes. They have abandoned it if they ever used it, and are better for it. It is, for myself, a source of deep humiliation that I did not earlier abandon tobacco. I believe that an after dinner cigar may be enjoyed with comparative impunity, when a man goes directly to business, where he cannot smoke, a half-hour's walk, is better however, as an aid to digestion. The habit is expensive, needless, and incompatible with that evenness of temper and living which gives weight to example, and prepares the christian for a life beyond the present. I feel that many have been encouraged in a foolish and expensive habit by my example. With Divine help, I shall repair that effect to my utmost; and hope that, as gray hairs rapidly admonish me of the coming end, I may ripen for a better land, and so redeem the time that remains."

THE CHURCH UNION.

THIS paper has been recently enlarged to mammoth proportions. IT IS THE LARGEST RELIGIOUS PAPER IN THE WORLD, is the leading organ of the Union Movement, and opposes ritualism, close communion, exclusiveness and church caste. It is the only paper that publishes HENRY WARD BEECHER'S Sermons, which it does every week, just as they are delivered,—without qualification or correction by him. It advocates universal suffrage; a union of christians at the polls; and the rights of labor. It has the best Agricultural Department of any paper in the world; publishes stories for the family, and for the destruction of social evils. Its editorial management is impersonal; its writers and editors are from every branch of the church, and from every grade of society. It has been aptly termed the freest organ of thought in the world.

Such a paper, offering premiums of Sewing Machines, Dictionaries, Appleton's Cyclopedin, Planos, Organs for Churches, etc., makes one of the best papers for canvassers in the world. Every Congregation may obtain a Communion Service, an Organ, a Melodeon, a Bible, or a Life Insurance Policy for its Pastor, or almost any other needful thing, by a club of subscribers. Send for a copy, enclosing 10 cents, to
