... STUDY OF MISSIONS ...

RESOLVE that at least ONE MISSIONARY MAGAZINE shall be prayerfully and carefully read every month AS A CHRISTIAN DUTY.

THE GLEANERS' UNION

FOR PRAYER AND WORK.

"Let me now go to the field and glean."-RUTH II. 2.

ITS OBJECT.

To unite in one fellowship all who labour at home or abroad, in connection with the Ch rch Missionary Society; all who pray for its Missions; all who are interested in the cause it represents, viz., the Evangelization of the world.

THE WORK OF ITS MEMBERS

Members are invited to "glean" in the following ways, but no member is bound to do all this. Any one who will do something, is eligible for membership :-

To glean, out of the field of Holy Scripture, the messages of God regarding His purposes of mercy to mankind.

To glean knowledge and information about the Heather and Mohammedan world, and, in particular, about the Church Missionary Society.

To glean the sympathies and services of others to help in the work

To glean the offerings of young and old for the treasury of God.

To glean blessings from the bounteous hand of the Lord for Missions and Missionaries by regular and definite Braver.

HOW TO BECOME A "GLEANER."

The name and address of every applicant in Canada must be sent to the Central Secretary, Miss Thomas, 42 Confederation Life Building, Toronto, either direct by the applicant, or where there is a Local Branch of the Union through the Secretary of the Branch. Entrance fee fire cents.

Number enrolled throughout the world over 200,000. In Canada, 3,800.

Gleaners' Own Missionary for 1901-Rev. Wm. C. White, China.
