THE SPIRIT OF MISSIONS (Edited by Secretaries of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the P. E. Church in the U. S.).—The July number of this most interesting publication contains full information regarding the various branches of the Missionary work of the Church in the United States; and how extensive and successful that work is becomes endless from a perusal of this Monthly Report. We feel sure that Canadian Churchmen would be excited to greater efforts by subscribing to and reading carefully this magazine.

THE CHURCH ECLECTIC for July is, as usual, full of most interesting and instructive matter, original and selected. It is one of the most welcome of our many excellent exchanges, and we should be glad to know that it was in the hands of all our clergy and intelligent laymen. W. T. Gibson, editor, Utica, N.Y.

THE CATERER.—(E. C. Whitton, 1013 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.) This excellent Household Magazine comes to us for July, full of articles interesting not only to housewives but to the general reader. Subscription $2 per annum.

PRESBYTERIANISM V. EPISCOPACY.—If you strain out the gnat of primitive Episcopacy, you have got to swallow a camel larger than the wooden horse of Troy, viz., this: The assumed Presbyterianism of the Apostolic Church, in one generation unanimously and universally changed to Episcopacy, an Episcopacy, too, which knew nothing of any change, but always supposed itself to have been Primitive and Apostolic.

The Rev. F. E. Clark, in a sermon printed in the Golden Rule, thus touches on a habit that makes many a home insufferable:

"Oh the eternal nagging and fault-finding and carping that go on in many a family! Every little personal, every little harmless pet indulgence, every ingrained trait on either side, comes in for a pestering fire of unpleasant remarks, that prick and scarify and sting until that house is no more fit to live in than a patch of nettles is for a tired man's bed."

MARRIED.

CAMPBELL-SHERWOOD.—At the Church of the Transfiguration, New York City, on Tuesday, June 30th, by the Rev. Andrew Gray, A.M., Rector of St. Luke's Church, Chelsea, Mass., Colin Campbell, Esq., of New York, broker, and Miss Sarah A., daughter of the late John Y. Sherwood, Esq., of Passaic, N.Y.
