The only Remedy known that removes the true cause of disease from the system without injury to the person

HENCE IT CURES ALL DISEASES

All diseases are caused by Microbes, which are living germs in the blood; and these Microbes cause inflammation, fermentation, and decay. In vain have the best Scientists heretofore sought for an agent to destroy these Microbes in the blood without killing the patient. This medicine has been known but six years, yet thousands of persons will testify to its wonderful powers. We invite the closest investigation.
