

ONLY A FARMER'S DAUGHTER.

"She's only a farmer's daughter,"
A stylish lady said,
With a scornful glance of her handsome eye,
And a toss of her handsome head.
She smiled and frowned, and furbelowed
In the very latest style;
Her head was a wonder of crimps and curls,
And her train something less than a mile.
Her hands that sparkled with many a ring,
Were shapely and fair to view—
As they might be, for no useful work Were they ever allowed to do.
To hear her talk of the "lower class,"
Of their sins against propriety,
Of "her family," and of "country girls,"
And her horror of "mixed society."
One would think that among her ancestry
She numbered at least an Earl;
(Her father was once a carpenter,
And her mother a factory girl).
They say she is brilliant and beautiful,
I will not their words deny;
But ah! the farmer's daughter Is fairer far to my eye.
She is not in the height of fashion,
But is very becomingly dressed,
With flounces enough for comfort,
And they look as if made of the best.
Mirth and innocent happiness
Out of her blue eyes shine;
Her hair is untortured by crimps and curls,
And she wears it by right divine.
No mother toils in the kitchen for her,
While she on the sofa lies,
Novel in hand, dressed in her best,
Receiving her morning calls.
A share in the heat and the burden of life She willingly, cheerfully takes,
And duty, and love, in that happy home,
A pleasure of labor makes.
And though you may smile at this curious fact,
I have seen her with hoe in her hand, While she planted the corn, or waged war on the weeds.
When man's help was scarce in the land,
And her flowers—well, next summer you'll see them yourself.
As you ride past the farm on the prairie,
And mark the home, covered with roses and vines,
The work of this Martha or Mary.
And I'm sure you will say, spite the verdict of those Who live out in fashion's gay whirl,
That "only a farmer's daughter" means
Only a sensible girl!

This is the way the newspapers talk in Louisiana:
"If that convicted thief and robber, Jim Walker, wants any fuss with us he can have steel or buckshot in unlimited quantities by poking his nose around our corner."

A NEW SIGN OF A HARD WINTER.—"Next winter's wine to be a mighty hard one, if you believe me," said a steamboat rouster on the elevator yesterday.
"Why so?" a Herald reporter asked.
"Look at de muskeeters."

"Well?"
"Y'ever see 'em so thick?"
"They are rather numerous."
"And dey don't sing a bit."
"Maybe they're out of music; besides, you know the acoustics of this building are bad."
"Cowdicks!"

"No acoustics; sound, you understand. Throats of the little warblers out of order; ceiling of the building phonic. Their little songs melt away in the distance, as it were; the sound is refracted, and—"

"Well, I don't know nuffin 'bout dat, boss, but I tell you's gwine to be a hard winter. When you see so many skeeters not singing a bit, but jest gettin' down right square to business, you may know dey's layin' in a supply of pervishuns for a hard winter.
Dat's my sign."—Vicksburg Herald.

THE GROVES OF MOROCCO.—The groves of rose trees and the flower farms of Morocco are said by a recent traveler to exceed in extent and value those of Damascus, or even of those of the Valley of Mexico. The general climate of the country is very favorable to this kind of culture. Swept alternately by the breezes of the Atlantic and the Mediterranean, and tempered by the snows of the Atlas ranges the degree of heat in Morocco is much lower than in Algeria, while the soil is exceedingly fertile. To the date, palm, and to orange and lemon trees, the climate seems to be especially suited, the dates of Tasla having been famous even from Roman times.
The orange plantations are of great extent in various parts of the country, while olives and almonds are also staples imported in large quantities. Seeing that this fertile land, lying within five days' steam from London, produces so much vegetable wealth under the most barbarous cultivation, it appears extraordinary that European enterprise does not, in such a climate, seek profitable employment for its abundant capital in its application to the development of such vast resources, so close at hand, instead of going so far afield as Australia or America.

If you have a discharge from the nose, offensive or otherwise, partial loss of the sense of smell, taste, or hearing, eyes watery or weak, feel dull and stupid or debilitated, pain or pressure in the head, take cold easily, you may rest assured that you have the Catarrh. Thousands annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, terminate in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive, or less understood by physicians. R. V. Pierce, M.D., of Buffalo, N. Y., is the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy—a perfect Specific for Catarrh, "Cold in the Head," or Catarrhal Headache, which he sends to any address (post-paid) for sixty cents, or four packages for $2.
Sold by most druggists everywhere.

We were exposed last week to a pitiless storm, that wet our feet and stockings, and indeed our person all over. In fact we took a cracking cold, which brought sore throat and severe symptoms of fever. The good wife asserted her authority, plunged our feet in hot water, wrapped us in hot blankets, and sent our faithful son for a bottle of AYER'S CATHARTIC. It is a splendid medicine—pleasant to take and did the job. We slept soundly through the night and awoke well the next morning. We know we owe our quick recovery to the Pectoral, and shall not hesitate to recommend it to all who need such a medicine.—Tehuacana (Texas) Presbyterian.

POWER OF SPEAKING RESTORED.

NEWARK, ONTARIO, D. C., March 30, 1870.
Mr. FELLOWS—Sir—Some two months ago my son lost his voice. I became very anxious about him. None of the physicians could do him any good. Having heard of your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, I obtained a bottle. Strange to say, my son's voice was restored about two hours after taking the second dose.

effected by Burnett's Cocoa. This incomparable Hair Dressing imparts a glossiness that is healthy and natural. It is a cooling vegetable oil, agreeable and clean and dresses the hair perfectly.

Lost Sheep.—A Methodist minister travelling in the back settlement of a Western State, stopped at a cabin; where an old lady received him very kindly, giving him a warm supper, and asking many questions: "Stranger, where mought you be from?"
"Madam, I reside in Shelby county, Kentucky."
"Wall, stranger, hope no offence, but what mought you be doing out here?" "Madam, I am looking for the lost of the tribe of Israel." "John," shouted the old lady, "here's a stranger all the way from Kentucky a hunting lost stock, and I'll just bet my life that old curly-haired black ram that came into our yard belongs to him."

Epp's Cocoa.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills.
It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease.
Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point.
We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply thic Chemist, 48, Threadneedle Street, and 170,

TEETH!
McGOWAN'S DENTIFRICE.
To my Patients and the Public:
In transferring the entire manufacture of my
"DENTIFRICE" to Mr. B. E. McGALE, Chemist, of this city, I may add that I have used the above in my practice for the past twenty-four years, and conscientiously recommend it as a safe, reliable and efficient cleanser of the Teeth, and a preparation well calculated to arrest decay and render the Gums firm and healthy. It is perfectly free from artificial coloring matter, acids, or other substances deliteri-ous to the Teeth or Gums.
W. B. MCGOWAN, L.D.S.
The above is prepared under my direct supervision with the greatest care and accuracy, and strictly according to the original recipe of Dr. W. B. McGowan, Surgeon Dentist, of this city.
