WORD comes from Kingston that the summer season of 1893 at the St. Lawrence river resorts has been a partial failure. Preparations based on the large attendance in June were made for the whole season at the var-stores of supplies were laid in, half of which are unused.

THIRTY EIGHT dollars and a half per head is the average price paid for 5,000 to 6,000 head of cattle bought in Southern Alberta by Messrs. Gordon & Ironsides, of Manitoba. Some ranchers think this too low and are holding for higher figures. The Calgary Herald hears that Mr. Ironsides would buy some 5,000 head more this fall if the ranchers will make prices to suit.
