"OXFORD" Radiators

For HOT WATER and STEAM

THEY are absolutely the only Radiators made with all Iron to Iron Connections—they have no paper-packed joints and never leak — each Radiator is thoroughly tested before leaving the factory.

We make 12 different designs and over a thousand sizes—they supply every possible need of any building.

OXFORD RADIATORS are endorsed by leading Architects and Engineers in Canada, England and the States; they give unequalled satisfaction.....We guarantee their capacity.
