Without urging an immediate reply from any of the Delegations of the three additional countries proposed, I may say it is the sincere wish of the sponsors that they will be able to accept this sees does not 4. Suggests that Members of the United Nations be informed as progress is achieved in the establishment of the Agency and that the views of Members who have manifested their interest be fully considered; invitation.

Voting Results

Following is the text of a resolution (U.N. Doc. No. A/C.1/759) adopted unanimously by the First Committee on November 23, 1954: CONCERNING THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE USES OF ATOMIC ENERGY E ON THE PEACEFUL

The General Assembly, and the benefits arising from the Believing that the benefits arising from the momentous discovery of atomic energy should be placed at the convice of mankind. at the service of mankind, an bled ed

Desiring to promote energetically the use of atomic energy to the end that it will serve only the peaceful pursuits of mankind and ameliorate their peaceful pursuits of mainting did design notified of the aliving conditions, short bus notified of length and the design notified of length le

Recognizing the importance and the urgency of one international co-operation in developing and expanding international co-operation in developing and original international co-operation in developing and original the peaceful uses of atomic energy to assist in lifting the peaceful uses of atomic energy to assist in lifting the peaceful uses of hunger, poverty and disease,

Believing also that all nations should co-vibate operate in promoting the dissemination of knowledge in the realm of nuclear technology for peaceful ends, be held no Later than August 1955 mined by the Secretary-General and by the Advisory Committee

CONCERNING AN INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY AGENCY

Recalling the initiative of the President of the United States embodied in his address of 8 December 1953,

Noting that negotiations are in progress, of bas and the intention that they should continue, for the establishment as quickly as possible of an Interestablishment as quickly as possible of an Inter-national Atomic Energy Agency to facilitate the use by national Atomic Energy Agency to lacilitate the use by the entire world of atomic energy for peaceful purposes, the entire world of atomic energy for peaceful purposes, and to encourage international comperation in the entire and practical application of and to encourage international co-operation in the first and further development and practical application of self bloom further development and self bloom further development application and self bloom further development application application and self bloom further development application application and self bloom further development application a further development and plactfor application of the brown atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind, so has office to atomic energy for the benefit of mankind atomic en

- 1. Expresses the hope that the International Atomic Energy Agency will be established without delay,
- 2. Suggests that, once the Agency is established, it negotiate an appropriate form of agreement with the it negotiate an appropriate of bas another bestau eds