

When history remembers EXPO 86 let it note the achievements and contributions of every individual, but let it also record that here we honoured our humanity and reaffirmed the hope and promise of tomorrow in a celebration that belonged to the world.