INTENDING, therefore, to co-operate with one another to these ends,

HAVE AGREED as follows:

ARTICLE I

For purposes of this Agreement:

(a) "territory" means:

    (i) in respect of Canada, the territory of Canada as defined in its laws and parts of the continental shelf and adjacent waters, over which Canada has sovereignty, sovereign rights or other rights in accordance with international law;

    (ii) in respect of Indonesia, the territory of Indonesia as defined in its laws and parts of the continental shelf and adjacent seas, over which Indonesia has sovereignty, sovereign rights or other rights in accordance with international law;

(b) "appropriate governmental authority" means such authority or authorities as the Party concerned may from time notify to the other Party;

(c) "equipment" means the items and major components thereof specified in Part A of Annex B to this Agreement;

(d) "material" means the non-nuclear material for reactors specified in Part B of Annex B to this Agreement;

(e) "Non-Proliferation Treaty safeguards agreement" means an agreement concluded in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article III of the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, done at London, Moscow and Washington on 1 July 1968;

(f) "nuclear material" means any "source material" or "special fissionable material" as those terms are defined in Article XX of the Statute of the Agency. Any determination by the Board of Governors of the Agency under Article XX of the Agency's Statute that amends the list of materials considered to be "source material" or "special fissionable material" shall only have effect under this Agreement when both Parties have informed each other in writing that they accept that amendment;

(g) "technology" means technical data, important for the design, production, operation or maintenance of equipment and significant in terms of non-proliferation, that the supplier Party has designated, prior to transfer in physical form and after consultation with the recipient Party, and;
