

II — UNINSURED AND INSURED PARCELS

ARTICLE 4

Limits of Weight and Size

- (1) Each contracting party undertakes that its postal administration will not, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, accept for despatch to the country of the other party any parcel exceeding the limits of size and weight specified in this Agreement.
- (2) The limits of size of the parcels shall be 3 feet 6 inches (1.07 metres) in length and 6 feet (1.83 metres) for the sum of the length and of the greatest circumference measured in a direction other than that of the length.
- (3) In the absence of agreement to the contrary, the maximum weight of parcels to be exchanged between the two countries shall be 22 pounds avoirdupois (10 kilogrammes).
- (4) Unless there is an obvious error, the view of the office of origin shall prevail as regards the establishment of weight, volume or size.

ARTICLE 5

Formalities to be Complied with by the Sender

Each parcel must be accompanied by a properly completed Customs declaration indicating thereon whether, if undeliverable at the address shown the parcel is to be delivered to an alternative address in the country of destination or treated as abandoned. In the absence of any such indication, the parcel will be returned to the sender at his expense without previous intimation. The relative return charges are to be entered on the parcel bill and claimed from the country of origin.

ARTICLE 6

Method of Transmission

Parcels shall be exchanged in closed bags. The maximum weight for a bag of parcels shall not exceed 66 pounds avoirdupois (30 kilogrammes).

ARTICLE 7

Advice of Delivery

The sender of any category of parcel may not obtain an advice of delivery. Nevertheless it shall be open to the postal administrations of the two contracting parties at a later date to arrange for the extension of the "advice of delivery" service to any category of parcel.

ARTICLE 8

Territorial and Maritime Rates

The territorial and maritime charges for each country of origin, transit or destination will be at such rates as may be agreed upon from time to time by the postal administration of the two contracting parties.
