

4. "CITIZEN" means:
 - a) in relation to Canada a citizen of Canada;
 - b) in relation to Barbados, a citizen of Barbados or a person who is entitled to citizenship by the laws of Barbados.
5.
 - a) Words in the singular shall include words in the plural;
 - b) Words in the plural shall include the singular.

ARTICLE III

General Principles

1. The Parties undertake to afford each other the widest measure of cooperation in respect of the transfer of offenders in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.
2. An offender in the territory of one Party may be transferred to the territory of the other Party, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, in order to serve the sentence imposed on him. To that end, he shall express in writing to the Sentencing State or to the Receiving State, his interest in being transferred under this Agreement.
3. Transfer may be requested by either the Sentencing State or the Receiving State.

ARTICLE IV

Conditions of Transfer

1. An offender may be transferred under this Agreement only on the following conditions:
 - A. The elements of the offence upon which the sentence has been imposed constitute a criminal offence according to the law of each of the two States, however this condition shall not be interpreted so as to require that the crime described in the laws of both states be identical in those matters which do not affect the said elements of the offence or the nature of the crime;
 - B. That the offender is a citizen of the Receiving State;
 - C. That the offender has not been convicted of an offence that is solely against the military laws of either Party;
 - D. That at least six months of the offender's sentence remain to be served at the time of the offender expresses his or her interest in transferring;
 - E. That the offender has not been sentenced to the death penalty, except that a person originally sentenced to death, but whose sentence has been commuted, is eligible to apply for a transfer;
 - F. That all appeal procedures shall have been completed and that the sentence be final with no extraordinary review proceedings pending at the time of invoking the provisions of this Agreement;