JOSEPH LOUIS EUGENE COUILLARD

Mr. Couillard was born in Ottawa in 1914. He is a graduate of the University of Ottawa and Queen's University. Mr. Couillard was a member of the Wartime

Prices and Trade Board, 1940-41, and of the Unemployment Insurance Commission in 1941. He joined the Canadian Army in 1941 and served in the United Kingdom and Northwestern Europe; he was discharged in 1945

(Captain). After three years with the Department of Trade and Commerce, Mr. Couillard joined External Affairs in 1948. In 1950 he served as Deputy

Canadian Representative at the Organization of the European Economic Co-operation, Paris, and subsequently served in London and Washington.

Mr. Couillard is married and has four children.