

SUB-COMMITTEE'S REPORT

REPORT TO THE HOUSE

PREAMBLE

The Sub-Committee on Fitness and Amateur Sport was created in June 1989 by the House of Commons Standing Committee on Health and Welfare, Social Affairs, Seniors and Status of Women. At its first meeting, held in November 1989, the Sub-Committee decided to study the Report of the Task Force on National Sport Policy, published in August 1989.

The Standing Committee on Health and Welfare, Social Affairs, Seniors and the Status of Women has the honour to present its

During this meeting, the Sub-Committee also stated its intention to study the recommendations of the Dubin Commission's Report on the Inquiry into Drug Use by Athletes. In this regard, the Minister of Health and Amateur Sport, the Honourable Jean Charest, indicated to the members of the Sub-Committee that the

SECOND REPORT

Pursuant to Standing Order 108(1), a Sub-Committee of the Standing Committee on Health and Welfare, Social Affairs, Seniors and the Status of Women has been established to examine some aspect of Fitness and Amateur Sport in Canada and to report its conclusions and recommendations to the Committee.

The Sub-Committee received the Minister of State for Fitness and Amateur Sport, all major national sports organizations (NSOs), and various multi-sport service and

In accordance with its mandate under Standing Order 108(2), the Sub-Committee has examined the Report Toward 2000: Building Canada's Sport System, prepared by the Task Force on National Sport Policy, and the Report of the Commission of Inquiry into the Use of Drugs and Banned Practices Intended to Increase Athletic Performance (Dubin Commission).

July on this Report, the Sub-Committee addressed issues mainly related to penalties for

The Sub-Committee agreed to present the following to the Committee. Your Committee has adopted this report which reads as follows:

On the matter of Maroni Death, the Sub-Committee transmitted its views to the Minister by way of a resolution, copy of which is provided in Appendix A.

Hearings were continued in the fall on matters related to penalties for coaches. A motion requesting the establishment of an independent arbitration in the case of Mr. Andrzej Kulesza was adopted unanimously. Appendix B presents a copy of this motion.