

Adjournment Debate

Government on them. This is happening and we have seen some very positive results.

That is not to minimize the importance of the suggestion by the Hon. Member. It is a good one. Obviously he has been in touch with one of the major oil companies, and he might want to encourage the others by making that suggestion to them. I thank him for bringing up this issue and for his concern. Yes, we are very, very pleased that the savings resulting from lower oil prices have been passed on to consumers right across this great country of ours.
