Gentlemen of the House of Commons :

I thank you in His Majesty's name for the liberal supplies you have granted for the public service.

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate :

Gentlemen of the House of Commons :

In now relieving you from your duties let me express the fervent hope that when we meet again at the next session, an equally prosperous condition will prevail throughout Canada, and in the meantime let us not forget to express gratitude to a kind Providence for the many blessings conferred upon our country.

The Speaker of the Senate then said :

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate :

Gentlemen of the House of Commons :

It is His Excellency the Governor General's will and pleasure, that this parliament be prorogued until Saturday, the first day of June next, to be here holden, and this parliament is accordingly prorogued until the first day of June next.
