First,
1919.

Dear Mr. Dean,

I enclose copy of a letter I have this morning received from Colonel Ballantyne in response to your request that Lord Jellicoe address the students of McGill University.

I know Lord Jellicoe is averse to making addresses or otherwise I feel sure he would be only too pleased to have the opportunity of meeting such a promising body of men.

I am,

Yours very truly,

Frank D. Adams
